

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO, 2006

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

SECTION

PRELIMINARY

1. The State
2. The supreme law
3. Interpretation

CHAPTER 1

THE RECOGNITION AND PROTECTION OF FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS

PART I

Rights enshrined

4. Recognition and declaration of rights and freedoms
5. Right to life, liberty and security
6. Right to property
7. Right to equality before the law
8. Right to equality of treatment
9. Right to privacy
10. Political rights
11. Right to education
12. Freedom of movement
13. Freedom of religion
14. Freedom of thought and expression
15. Freedom of assembly and association
16. Witness protection
17. Right to housing

18. Right to basic amenities
19. Prohibition against torture and other cruel punishment
20. Freedom of culture
21. Freedom of the press
22. Right to citizenship
23. Rights of the child
24. Protection of rights and freedoms
25. Saving for existing rights and freedoms

PART II

Exceptions for Existing Law

26. Savings for existing law

PART III

Exceptions for Emergencies

27. Emergency powers
28. Period of public emergency
29. Grounds for, and initial duration of Proclamation
30. Extension of Proclamation
31. Detention of persons
32. Publication

PART IV

Exceptions for Certain Legislation

33. Acts inconsistent with sections 4 to 25

PART V

General

34. Enforcement of the protective provisions

CHAPTER 2

CITIZENSHIP

35. Continuation of citizenship under former Constitution
36. Acquisition of citizenship by birth or descent
37. Commonwealth citizens
38. Criminal liability of Commonwealth citizens
39. Powers of Parliament
40. Interpretation of Chapter 2

CHAPTER 3

THE PRESIDENT

41. Establishment of office and election of President
42. Qualification for office of President
43. Other conditions of office of President
44. Establishment of office and election of Vice- President
45. Qualification for office of Vice-President
46. Other conditions of office of Vice-President
47. Transitional provision
48. Holding of election for President and Vice-President
49. Procedure for balloting
50. Term of office
51. Temporary absence of President
52. Where office of President vacant
53. Vacation of office
54. Removal of President from office
55. Removal of Vice-President from office
56. Oath
57. Immunities of the President
58. Determination of questions as to elections

CHAPTER 4

PARLIAMENT

PART 1

COMPOSITION OF PARLIAMENT

Establishment

59. Establishment of Parliament

The Senate

60. Composition of Senate
61. Qualification for appointment as a Senator
62. Holding of election by Local Government body
63. Holding of election by House of Assembly
64. Election of Senators by proportional representation
65. Disqualification for appointment as Senator
66. Tenure of office of Senators
67. Removal of Senators from office
68. Appointment of temporary Senators
69. President and Vice-President of the Senate

The House of Representatives

70. Composition of the House of Representatives
71. Qualifications for election as member
72. Disqualifications for election as member
73. Tenure of office of members
74. Speaker and Deputy Speaker
75. Removal of Speaker
76. Qualifications of voters

General

77. Determination of questions of membership

PART II

Powers, Privileges and Procedure of Parliament

78. Power to make laws
79. Alteration of this Constitution
80. Privileges and immunities of Parliament
81. Regulation of procedure in each House
82. Oath of allegiance
83. Presiding in the Senate and the House of Representatives
84. Voting
85. Quorum
86. Mode of exercising legislative power
87. Attendance of Ministers in either House
88. Introduction of Bills, etc.
89. Restrictions on powers of Senate as to Money Bills
90. Restrictions on powers of Senate as to Bills other than Money Bills
91. Provisions relating to sections 88, 89 and 90
92. Appointment of certain Select or Joint Select Committees
93. Reports of Service Commissions
94. Exemption of and reporting by Judicial and Legal Service Commission
95. Report of Government Ministries, etc.

Part III

Summoning, Prorogation and Dissolution

96. Sessions of Parliament
97. Prorogation and dissolution of Parliament
98. General election or bye-election

PART IV

Elections and Boundaries Commission

- 99. Constituencies
- 100. Elections and Boundaries Commission
- 101. Procedure for review of constituency boundaries

PART V

System of Balloting

- 102. System of balloting

CHAPTER 5

EXECUTIVE POWERS

- 103. The Cabinet
- 104. Appointment of Ministers
- 105. Tenure of office of Ministers
- 106. Allocation of portfolios to Ministers
- 107. Ministers to report to Parliament
- 108. Oath to be taken by Ministers
- 109. Exercise of President's functions
- 110. President to inform Parliament concerning matters of Government
- 111. Leader of the Opposition
- 112. Permanent Secretaries
- 113. Constitution of offices, etc.
- 114. Powers of pardon, etc
- 115. Advisory Committee on the Power of Pardon
- 116. Functions of Advisory Committee

CHAPTER 6

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS AND THE OMBUDSMAN

PART I

Director of Public Prosecutions

- 117. Appointment, tenure and functions

PART II

Ombudsman

- 118. Appointment and conditions of office
- 119. Staff of Ombudsman
- 120. Functions of Ombudsman
- 121. Restrictions on matters for investigations
- 122. Discretion of Ombudsman
- 123. Report on investigation
- 124. Power to request reasons
- 125. Power to obtain evidence
- 126. Prescribed matters concerning Ombudsman

CHAPTER 7

THE JUDICATURE

PART I

The Supreme Court

- 127. Establishment of Supreme Court
- 128. Constitution of High Court
- 129. Transfer of High Court jurisdiction
- 130. Concurrent jurisdiction

The Court of Appeal

- 131. Constitution of Court of Appeal
- 132. Appointment of Chief Justice
- 133. Office of Chief Justice vacant
- 134. Acting appointment as Chief Justice

Appointment of Judges

- 135. Appointment of Judges
- 136. Qualifications of Judges
- 137. Tenure of office
- 138. Oath to be taken by Judges
- 139. Administration of courts
- 140. Appeals on constitutional questions and fundamental rights, etc.

PART II

Appeals to the Caribbean Court of Justice

- 141. Interpretation of this Part
- 142. Jurisdiction of the Caribbean Court of Justice
- 143. Appeals from Court of Appeal to Caribbean Court of Justice
- 144. Constitution, tenure, appointment, etc

PART III

Judicial and Legal Service Commission

- 145. Judicial and Legal Service Commission
- 146. Appointment of judicial and legal officers
- 147. Removal from office of Judge

CHAPTER 8

FINANCE

- 148. Establishment of Consolidated Fund
- 149. Authorisation of expenditure from Consolidated Fund
- 150. Authorisation of expenditure in advance of appropriation
- 151. Contingencies Fund
- 152. Office and functions of Auditor General
- 153. Appointment of Auditor General
- 154. Oath by Auditor General
- 155. Staff
- 156. Office of Auditor General vacant
- 157. Acting appointment of Auditor General
- 158. Public debt
- 159. Public Accounts Committee
- 160. Public Accounts (Enterprises) Committee

CHAPTER 9

APPOINTMENTS TO, AND TENURE OF, OFFICES

PART I

SERVICE COMMISSIONS, ETC

Public Service Commission

- 161. Public Service Commission
- 162. Appointment, etc. of public officers
- 163. Personnel Boards
- 164. Exercise of power by Personnel Board
- 165. Delegation
- 166. Appeals

Police Service Commission

- 167. Police Service Commission
- 168. Powers of Police Service Commission
- 169. Powers of Commissioner of Police

Teaching Service Commission

- 170. Teaching Service Commission
- 171. Appointment, etc. of teachers

General Provisions on Service Commissions

- 172. Qualification, tenure of office, etc.
- 173. Grounds of removal of members of Service Commissions
- 174. Delegation of functions
- 175. Consultation with other Service Commissions
- 176. Powers and procedure of Service Commissions

PART II

Public Service Appeal Board

- 177. Constitution of Appeal Board
- 178. Tenure of office
- 179. Appeals
- 180. Procedure

PART III

Pension

- 181. Protection of pension rights
- 182. Powers of Service Commission in relation to grant of pensions, etc.

PART IV

Special Offices

- 183. Appointment of principal representatives of Trinidad and Tobago
- 184. Tenure of special offices

CHAPTER 10

THE INTEGRITY COMMISSION

- 185. The Integrity Commission
- 186. Power to make laws relating to the Commission

CHAPTER 11

THE SALARIES REVIEW COMMISSION

- 187. Constitution of Commission
- 188. Functions of Commission

CHAPTER 12

THE TOBAGO HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

- 189. Tobago House of Assembly
- 190. Powers and functions of the House of Assembly
- 191. Executive Council
- 192. Fund

CHAPTER 13

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

- 193. Local Government bodies
- 194. Powers and functions of Local Government bodies
- 195. Funding

CHAPTER 14

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 196. Resignation
- 197. Re-appointment, etc.

FIRST SCHEDULE	FORMS OF OATH (OR AFFIRMATION) OF ALLEGIANCE AND OF OFFICE
SECOND SCHEDULE	BOUNDARIES OF CONSTITUENCIES
THIRD SCHEDULE	MATTERS NOT SUBJECT TO INVESTIGATION BY THE OMBUDSMAN
FOURTH SCHEDULE	LOCAL GOVERNMENT BODIES

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE REPUBLIC OF TRINIDAD
AND TOBAGO, 2006

Commencement

[December, 2006]

Preamble

Whereas the People of Trinidad and Tobago-

- a. have affirmed that the Nation of Trinidad and Tobago is founded upon principles that acknowledge the supremacy of God, faith in fundamental human rights and freedoms, the position of the family in a society of free men and free institutions, the dignity of the human person and the equal and inalienable rights with which all members of the human family are endowed by their Creator;
- b. respect the principles of social justice and therefore believe that the operation of the economic system should result in the material resources of the society being so distributed as to subserve the common good, that there should be adequate means of livelihood for all, that labour should not be exploited or forced by economic necessity to operate in inhumane conditions but that there should be an opportunity for advancement on the basis of recognition of merit, ability and integrity;
- c. have asserted their belief in a democratic society in which all persons may, to the extent of their capacity, play some part in the institutions of the national life and thus develop and maintain due respect for lawfully constituted authority;
- d. recognise that men and institutions remain free only when freedom is founded upon respect for moral and spiritual values and the rule of law;

- e. desire that their Constitution should enshrine the above mentioned principles and beliefs and make provision for ensuring the protection in Trinidad and Tobago of fundamental human rights and freedoms.

Now, therefore, the following provisions shall have effect as the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago:

PRELIMINARY

The State

1.(1) The Republic of Trinidad and Tobago shall be a sovereign democratic State.

(2) Trinidad and Tobago shall comprise the Island of Trinidad, the Island of Tobago and any territories that immediately before the 31st day of August, 1962 were dependencies of Trinidad and Tobago, including the seabed and subsoil situated beneath the territorial sea and the continental shelf of Trinidad and Tobago together with such other areas as may be prescribed to form part of the state of Trinidad and Tobago.

Chap. 1:51
Chap. 1:52

(3) In subsection (2), "territorial sea" and "continental shelf" shall have the same meaning as in the Territorial Sea Act, and the Continental Shelf Act, respectively.

The supreme law

2. This Constitution is the supreme law of Trinidad and Tobago, and any other law that is inconsistent with this Constitution is void to the extent of the inconsistency.

Interpretation

3. (1) In this Constitution-
"Act" means an Act of Parliament;
"the Cabinet" means the Cabinet constituted under section 103;

“Caribbean Court of Justice” means the Caribbean Court of Justice established by the Agreement Establishing the Caribbean Court of Justice, signed at Bridgetown, Barbados, on 14th February, 2001;

"court" means any court of law in Trinidad and Tobago other than a court martial and, where applicable, includes the Caribbean Court of Justice;

"financial year" means any period of twelve months beginning on the first day of October in any year or such other date as may be prescribed;

"general election" means a general election of members to serve in the House of Representatives;

“Government” means the Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago;

"House" means either the House of Representatives or the Senate as the context may require;

“House of Assembly” means the Tobago House of Assembly established by section 189;

"Judge" includes the Chief Justice, a Judge of Appeal and a Puisne Judge, and, where applicable, a Judge of the Caribbean Court of Justice;

"law" includes any written and unwritten law, and any Act of Parliament or statutory instrument of the United Kingdom that before the commencement of this Constitution has effect as part of the law of Trinidad and Tobago;

“Local Government body” means a body established under the Municipal Corporations Act, 1990 and set out in the Fourth Schedule and includes any other such body as may be prescribed;

First Schedule

“Minister” means a Minister of Government, and includes a Junior Minister, Minister of State, or any other similar designation;

"oath" includes affirmation;

"oath of allegiance" means the oath of allegiance set out in the First Schedule or such other oath as may be prescribed;

"Parliament" means the Parliament of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago;

"prescribed" means prescribed by or under an Act;

“President” means the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago elected under section 49(1);

"public office" means an office of emolument in the public service;

"public officer" means the holder of any public office and includes any person appointed to act in any such office;

"public service" means, subject to subsections (4) and (5), the service of the Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago or of the House of Assembly in a civil capacity;

"Service Commission" means the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, the Public Service Commission, the Police Service Commission or the Teaching Service Commission;

"session" means, in relation to a House, the sittings of that House commencing when it first meets after this Constitution comes into force or after the prorogation or dissolution of Parliament at any time, and terminating when Parliament is prorogued or is dissolved without having been prorogued;

"sitting" means, in relation to a House, a period during which that House is sitting continuously without adjournment, and includes any period during which the House is in committee;

"State" means the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago;

"Trinidad and Tobago" has the meaning attributed to that expression in the Trinidad and Tobago Independence Act, 1962;

"the Commonwealth" includes the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago and any other country to which section 37 applies and any dependency of any such country;

"the former Constitution" means the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago set out in the Schedule to the Constitution of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago Act.

10&11 Eliz.2 C.
54

Chap. 1:01

(2) In this Constitution-

(a) a reference to an appointment to an office shall be construed as including a reference to the appointment of a person to act in or perform the functions of that office at any time when the office is vacant or the holder of that office is unable for any reason to perform the functions of that office; and

(b) a reference to the holder of an office by the term designating his office shall be construed as including a reference to a person for the time being lawfully acting in or performing the functions of that office.

(3) Where by this Constitution a person is directed, or power is conferred on a person or an authority, to appoint a person to perform the functions of an office if the holder of the officer is unable to perform those functions, the validity of any performance of those functions by the person so directed or of any appointment made in exercise of that power shall not be called in question in any court on the ground that the holder of the office is able to perform the functions of the office.

(4) For the purpose of this Constitution, a person shall not be considered to hold an office in the public service by reason only that-

- (a) he is in receipt of a pension or other like allowance in respect of public service;
- (b) he holds the office of-
 - (i) President or Vice-President;
 - (ii) Speaker, President of the Senate, Deputy Speaker, Vice-President of the Senate, Minister, member or temporary member of the Senate or member of the House of Representatives or the House of Assembly;
 - (iii) Ombudsman or member of the Integrity Commission or member of any other Commission established by this Constitution;
 - (iv) Judge or member of a superior court of record or any special judicial tribunal established by an Act or member of the Public Service Appeal Board;
 - (v) member of any board, commission, committee or similar body, whether incorporated or not, established by law;

(vi) member of the personal staff of the President;

(c) he is-

(i) a consultant or adviser appointed for a specific purpose; or

(ii) a person appointed on contract for a period not exceeding five years.

(5) Where Parliament so provides, a person shall not be considered for the purpose of this Constitution to hold office in the public service by reason only that he is the holder of a special office established by or under an Act.

(6) Reference in this Constitution to the power to remove a public officer from a public office shall be construed as including reference to any power conferred by any law to require or permit that officer to retire from the public service.

(7) A power conferred by any law to permit a person to retire from the public service shall, in the case of a public officer who may be removed from office by some person or authority other than a Commission established by this Constitution, vest in the Public Service Commission.

(8) Nothing in subsection (6) shall be construed as conferring on any person or authority power to require a Judge or the Auditor General to retire from the public service.

(9) Where a power is conferred by this Constitution to make any proclamation, order, rule or regulation or to give any direction, the power shall be construed as including a power exercisable in like manner to amend or revoke any such proclamation, order, rule regulation or direction.

CHAPTER 1
THE RECOGNITION AND PROTECTION OF FUNDAMENTAL HUMAN RIGHTS AND FREEDOMS

PART I

Rights enshrined

Recognition and declaration of rights and freedoms

4. It is hereby recognised and declared that in Trinidad and Tobago there have existed and shall continue to exist without discrimination by reason of race, origin, colour, religion or sex, the fundamental human rights and freedoms set out under this Chapter.

Right to life, liberty and security

5.(1) Everyone has the right to life, liberty, security of the person and the right not to be deprived thereof except by due process of law.

(2) Everyone has the right to have his life respected and this right shall be protected by law and, in general, from the moment of conception.

(3) Everyone has the right to be secure against unreasonable search or seizure.

(4) No one shall be deprived of his liberty except in the following cases and in accordance with a procedure prescribed:

- (a) the lawful detention of a person after conviction by a court;
- (b) the lawful arrest or detention of a person for non-compliance with the lawful order of a court or in order to secure the fulfilment of any obligation prescribed by law;
- (c) the lawful arrest or detention of a person effected for the purpose of bringing him before a competent legal authority on reasonable suspicion of having committed an offence or when it is considered reasonably justifiable in a free and democratic society that has a proper respect for the rights and freedoms of the individual to prevent him committing an offence or fleeing after having done so;

- (d) the detention of a minor by lawful order for the purpose of educational supervision or his lawful detention for the purpose of bringing him before a competent legal authority;
- (e) the lawful arrest or detention of a person to prevent his effecting an unauthorised entry into the country or of a person against whom action is being taken with a view to his deportation or extradition.

Right to property

6.(1) Everyone has the right to enjoyment of property and the right not to be deprived thereof except by due process of law.

(2) A person who is deprived of his property by the State for a public purpose or in the public interest is entitled to be compensated, within six months of the deprivation, for the value of his property at the current open market value, and where the State fails to pay compensation within this time, interest shall be payable on the amount due at the rate payable on registered judgement debts of the High Court.

(3) Nothing in this section shall restrict the right of the State to enforce such laws as it considers reasonably justifiable in a free and democratic society that has a proper respect for the rights and freedoms of the individual to control the use of property or to secure the payment of taxes, other contributions or penalties.

Right to equality before the law

7. Everyone has the right to equality before and under the law and the right to the equal protection and equal benefit of the law without discrimination based on any grounds.

Right to equality of treatment

8.(1) Everyone has the right to equality of treatment from any public authority in the exercise of any of its functions without discrimination based on any grounds.

(2) The State shall not discriminate directly or indirectly against anyone on any grounds, and where there is discrimination on any ground, it is presumed to be discriminatory unless it is established that the discrimination is reasonably justifiable in a free and democratic society that has a proper respect for the rights and freedoms of the individual.

Right to privacy

9.(1) Everyone has the right to respect for his private life, family life, home and correspondence.

(2) There shall be no interference by a public authority with the exercise of this right except such as is in accordance with the law and is reasonably justifiable in a free and democratic society that has a proper respect for the rights and freedoms of the individual.

Political rights

10.(1) Everyone has the right to join political parties and express political views.

(2) Everyone is free to make political choices, which includes the right to-

- (a) form a political party;
 - (b) participate in the activities of, or recruit members for, a political party, and to campaign for a political party or cause.
- (3) Everyone has the right to free, fair and regular election.
- (4) Every adult citizen has the right-
- (a) to vote in election for any parliamentary or legislative body established by this Constitution or any other law, and to do so by secret ballot; and
 - (b) unless prohibited by law, to stand for public office in accordance with the law and, if elected, to hold office.

Right to education

11.(1) A parent or guardian has the right to provide a school of his own choice for the education of his child or ward.

- (2) Everyone has the right to -
- (a) a basic education, including adult basic education; and
 - (b) further education, which the State through reasonable measures shall make progressively available and accessible.
- (3) Everyone has the right to receive education in a public or private institution where that education is reasonably practicable.
- (4) In order to ensure the effective access to, and implementation of, this right, the State shall consider all reasonable educational alternatives, taking into account various types of education to meet different levels of competencies.

Freedom of movement

- 12.(1) Everyone has the right to freedom of movement.
- (2) Everyone has the right to leave the State.
- (3) Every citizen has the right to enter, remain and reside anywhere in the State.
- (4) Every citizen has the right to a passport.

Freedom of religion

- 13.(1) Everyone has the right to freedom of conscience and religion.
- (2) The right of freedom of religion includes the freedom to adopt any religion or belief or to change one's religion or belief and freedom either alone or in community with others and in public or in private, to manifest his religion or belief in worship, teachings, practice and observance.
- (3) The right in subsection (1) does not extend to advocacy of hatred, ridicule or contempt based on race, gender or religion, or which constitutes incitement to cause harm or violence.

Freedom of thought and expression

- 14.(1) Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, belief, opinion and expression.
- (2) The right under this section includes the freedom to exercise it in any form and by any means.
- (3) The right under this section shall not prevent the State from requiring the licensing of or other forms of regulating any means of broadcasting or publishing information or data to the public.
- (4) The exercise of the right under this section may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are reasonably justifiable in a free and democratic society, such as in the interest of national security, territorial integrity, public safety, the prevention of disorder, crime or the disclosure of information received in confidence, the protection of health, morals, the reputation of others or the rights and freedoms of others, or for maintaining the independence of the Judiciary.

(5) The right in subsection (1) does not extend to advocacy of hatred, ridicule or contempt based on race, gender or religion, or which constitutes incitement to cause harm or violence.

Freedom of assembly and association

15.(1) Everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and to freedom of association with others, including the right to join a trade union or such similar association for the protection of his interest.

(2) The exercise of the rights under this section may be subject to such formalities, conditions, restrictions or penalties as are prescribed by law and are reasonably justifiable in a free and democratic society, such as in the interest of national security, territorial integrity, public safety, the prevention of disorder, crime or the disclosure of information received in confidence, the protection of health, morals, the reputation of others or the rights and freedoms of others, or for maintaining the independence of the Judiciary.

(3) The rights in subsection (1) shall not prevent the imposition of lawful restriction of its exercise by members of the armed or military forces, police force or the administration of the State.

Witness protection

16.(1) The State shall ensure that necessary and reasonable action is taken to protect the safety and welfare of a witness in any proceedings before a court.

(2) In this section-

“witness” includes a person who has made or given a statement in any form or who has given or agreed to give evidence in any proceedings in relation to the commission of an offence;

“proceedings” includes any procedure in relation to an alleged or proven offence, including an inquiry or investigation, or preliminary or final determination of such inquiry or investigation .

Right to housing 17.(1) Everyone has the right to have access to reasonable housing.

(2) The State shall take reasonable measures, within its available resources, to achieve the progressive realisation of this right, by setting out clearly the criteria for eligibility.

Right to basic amenities

18.(1) Everyone has the right to have access to-

- (a) health care services, including reproductive health care to ensure the well-being of future generation;
- (b) sufficient food and water; and
- (c) social security including, if they are unable to support themselves and their dependants, appropriate social assistance.

(2) No one may be refused emergency medical treatment in a public health institution.

(3) The State shall take reasonable measures, within its available resources, to achieve the progressive realisation of these rights, by setting out clearly the criteria for eligibility.

Prohibition against torture and other cruel punishment

19. No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, degrading, or disproportionately severe treatment or punishment.

Freedom of culture

20. Everyone has the right to participate in the cultural life of his choice, but no one exercising this right may do so in a manner inconsistent with this Constitution.

Freedom of the press

21.(1) Everyone has the right to freedom of the press and other media of communication.

(2) Everyone has the right to the free interchange of thoughts and opinions.

(3) Everyone may accordingly speak, write or publish freely, subject to the responsibility to answer for abuses of this freedom in circumstances prescribed.

Right to citizenship

22. No citizen shall be deprived of his citizenship.

Rights of the child

23.(1) Every child, being a person under the age of eighteen years, has the right -

- (a) to a name and a nationality from birth;
- (b) to parental care or family care, or, when removed by the State from that environment, to appropriate alternative care;
- (c) to basic nutrition, shelter, basic health care services and social services;
- (d) to be protected from maltreatment, neglect, sexual abuse or any other form of abuse or degradation;
- (e) to be protected from exploitative labour practices;
- (f) not to be required or permitted to perform

- work or provide services that-
- (i) are inappropriate for a person of that child's age; or
 - (ii) place at risk the child's well-being, education, physical or mental health or spiritual, moral or social development;
- (g) not to be detained except as a measure of last resort, in which case, in addition to the rights a child enjoys in relation to freedom and security of the person and in relation to a person being accused, arrested, or detained, the child may be detained only for the shortest appropriate period of time, and has the right to be -
- (i) kept separately from detained persons who are over the age of eighteen years; and
 - (ii) treated in a manner, and kept in conditions, that take account of the child's age;
- (h) to have an attorney-at-law assigned to the child by the State, and at the expense of the State, in civil proceedings affecting the child, if substantial injustice would otherwise result;
- (i) not to be used directly or indirectly in any form of armed conflict, and to be protected in time of such conflict; and
- (j) to be protected from any form of sexual trade for the purpose of pornography or any other dehumanising or illicit purpose.

(2) A child's best interests are of paramount importance in every matter concerning the child.

(3) The State shall take reasonable measures, within its available resources, to achieve the progressive realisation of these rights, by setting out clearly the criteria for eligibility.

Protection of rights and
freedoms

24.(1) Except as is otherwise expressly provided in this Chapter and in section 79, no law may abrogate, abridge or infringe or authorise the abrogation, abridgement or infringement of any of the rights and freedoms recognised and declared in this Chapter.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), but subject to this Chapter and to section 79, Parliament may not-

- (a) authorise or effect the arbitrary detention, imprisonment or exile of any person;
- (b) impose or authorise the imposition of cruel and unusual treatment or punishment;
- (c) deprive a person who has been arrested or detained-
 - (i) of the right to be informed promptly and with sufficient particularity of the reason for his arrest or detention;
 - (ii) of the right to retain and instruct without delay a legal adviser of his own choice and the right to hold communication with him;
 - (iii) of the right to be brought promptly before an appropriate judicial authority;
 - (iv) of the remedy by way of habeas

- corpus for the determination of the validity of his detention and for his release if the detention is not lawful;
- (d) authorise a court, tribunal, commission, board or other authority to compel a person to give evidence unless he is afforded protection against self-incrimination and, where necessary to ensure such protection, the right to legal representation;
 - (e) deprive a person of the right to a fair hearing in accordance with the principles of natural justice for the determination of his rights and obligations;
 - (f) deprive a person charged with a criminal offence of the right-
 - (i) to be presumed innocent until proved guilty according to law, but this shall not invalidate a law by reason only that the law imposes on any such person the burden of proving particular facts;
 - (ii) to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal or;
 - (iii) to reasonable bail without just cause;
 - (g) deprive a person of the right to the assistance of an interpreter in any proceedings in which he is involved or in which he is a party or a witness, before a court, commission, board or other tribunal,

if he does not understand or speak English; or

- (h) deprive a person of the right to such procedural provisions as are necessary for the purpose of giving effect and protection to the rights and freedoms specified in this Chapter.

Saving for existing rights and freedoms

25. An existing right or freedom shall not be held to be abrogated or restricted in any way by reason only that the right or freedom is not included or is included only in part in this Chapter.

PART II

Exceptions for Existing Law

Savings for existing law

26.(1) Subject to this Constitution, existing laws shall continue to be in force on and after the date of commencement of this Constitution but shall be construed with such modifications, adaptations, qualifications and exceptions as may be necessary to bring them into conformity with this Constitution.

(2) Anything done under an existing law before its modification under this section, which would but for this section cease by virtue of that modification to have effect, shall continue to have effect as if done under the law so modified.

(3) Nothing in this Chapter shall invalidate an Act that repeals and re-enacts an existing law without alteration, or an Act that alters an existing law but does not derogate from any right guaranteed by this Chapter in a manner in which or to an extent to which that existing law did not previously derogate from that right.

(4) Where an Act repeals and re-enacts with modifications an existing law and is held to derogate from any right guaranteed by this Chapter in a manner in which or to an extent to which the existing law did not previously derogate from that right then, subject to sections 33 and 79, the provisions of the existing law shall be substituted for such of the provisions of the Act as are held to derogate from the right in a manner in which or to an extent to which the existing law did not previously derogate from that right.

(5) In this section-

"alters" in relation to an existing law, includes repealing that law and re-enacting it with modifications or making different provisions in place of it or modifying it;

"existing law" means a law that had effect as part of the law of Trinidad and Tobago immediately before the commencement of this Constitution, and includes any law referred to in subsection (1);

"right" includes freedom.

PART III

Exceptions for Emergencies

Emergency powers

27.(1) Without prejudice to the power of Parliament to make provision in the premise, but subject to this section, where any period of public emergency exists, the President may, due regard being had to the circumstances of any situation likely to arise or exist during such period, make regulations for the purpose of dealing with that situation and issue orders and instructions for the purpose of the exercise of any powers conferred on him or any other person by any Act referred to in subsection (3) or instrument made under this section or any such Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), regulations made under that subsection may, subject to section 31, make provision for the detention of any person.

(3) An Act that is passed during a period of public emergency and is expressly declared to have effect only during that period or any regulations made under subsection (1) shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 to 25 except in so far as its provisions may be shown not to be reasonably justifiable in a free and democratic society that has a proper respect for the rights and freedoms of the individual for the purpose of dealing with the situation that exists during that period.

Period of public emergency

28.(1) Subject to this section, for the purpose of this Chapter, the President may from time to time make a Proclamation declaring that a state of public emergency exists.

(2) A Proclamation made by the President under subsection (1) shall not be effective unless it contains a declaration that the President is satisfied-

- (a) that a public emergency has arisen as a result of the imminence of a state of war between Trinidad and Tobago and a foreign State;
- (b) that a public emergency has arisen as a result of the occurrence of any earthquake, hurricane, flood, fire, outbreak of pestilence or of infectious disease, or other calamity whether similar to the foregoing or not; or
- (c) that action has been taken, or is immediately threatened, by any person, of such a nature and on so extensive a scale, as to be likely to endanger the public safety or to deprive the community or any substantial portion of the community of supplies or services essential to life.

Grounds for, and initial duration of Proclamation

29.(1) Within three days of the making of the Proclamation, the President shall deliver to the Speaker for presentation to the House of Representatives a statement setting out the specific grounds on which the decision to declare the existence of a state of public emergency was based, and a date shall be fixed for a debate on this statement as soon as practicable but in any event not later than fifteen days from the date of the Proclamation.

(2) A Proclamation made by the President for the purpose of and in accordance with this section shall, unless previously revoked, remain in force for fifteen days.

Extension of Proclamation

30.(1) Before its expiration the Proclamation may be extended from time to time by resolution supported by a simple majority vote of the House of Representatives, but no extension shall exceed three months and the aggregate of all the extensions shall not exceed six months.

(2) The Proclamation may be further extended from time to time for not more than three months at any one time, by a resolution passed by both Houses of Parliament and supported by the votes of not less than three-fifths of all the members of each House.

(3) Unless previously revoked by the President, the Proclamation may be revoked at any time by a resolution supported by a simple majority vote of the House of Representatives.

(4) In this Part, "period of public emergency" means any period during which-

- (a) Trinidad and Tobago is engaged in any war; or
- (b) there is in force a Proclamation by the President declaring that a state of public emergency exists; or
- (c) there is in force a resolution of both Houses of Parliament supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all the members of each House declaring that democratic institutions in Trinidad and Tobago are threatened by subversion.

Detention of persons

31.(1) Where a person who is lawfully detained under an Act or regulations made under section 27 so requests at any time during the period of that detention and thereafter not earlier than four months after he last made such a request during that period, his case shall be reviewed by an independent and impartial tribunal established by law and presided over by an attorney-at-law appointed by the Chief Justice from among attorneys-at-law of not less than ten years standing entitled to practise in Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) On any review by a tribunal in pursuance of subsection (1) of the case of any detained person, the tribunal may make recommendations concerning the necessity or expediency of continuing his detention to the authority by whom it was ordered but, unless otherwise provided by law, that authority shall not be obliged to act in accordance with such recommendations.

Publication

32.(1) Where at any time it is impracticable or inexpedient to publish in the Gazette any Proclamation, Notice, Regulation or Order in pursuance of this Part, the President may cause the same to be published by any means.

(2) Upon the publication of a Proclamation under this Part all detention orders, curfew orders or other instruments, directions or instructions as are authorised to be made, issued or given by any regulations made under section 27 may be made, issued or given and executed upon any person or authority, even if such regulations have not yet been published pursuant to subsection (1).

PART IV

Exceptions for Certain Legislation

Acts inconsistent with sections 4 to 25

33.(1) An Act to which this section applies may expressly declare that it shall have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 to 25 and, if any such Act does so declare, it shall have effect accordingly unless the Act is shown not to be reasonably justifiable in a free and democratic society that has a proper respect for the rights and freedoms of the individual.

(2) An Act to which this section applies is one the Bill for which has been passed by both Houses of Parliament and at the final vote thereon in each House has been supported by the votes of not less than three-fifths of all the members of that House.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the number of members of the Senate is, notwithstanding the appointment of temporary members in accordance with section 68, deemed to be the number of members specified in section 60(1).

PART V

General

Enforcement of the protective provisions

34.(1) For the removal of doubt, it is hereby declared that if a person alleges that any of the provisions of this Chapter has been, is being, or is likely to be contravened in relation to him, then without prejudice to any other action with respect to the same matter which is lawfully available, that person may apply to the High Court for redress by way of originating motion.

- (2) The High Court shall have original jurisdiction-
 - (a) to hear and determine any application made by a person in pursuance of subsection (1); and
 - (b) to determine any question arising in the case of a person which is referred to it in pursuance of subsection (4), and may, subject to subsection (3), make such orders, issue such writs and give such directions as it may consider appropriate for the purpose of enforcing, or securing the enforcement of, any of the provisions of this Chapter to the protection of which the person concerned is entitled.

Chap. 8:02

(3) The State Liability and Proceedings Act shall have effect for the purpose of any proceedings under this section.

(4) Where in any proceedings in any court, other than the High Court, the Court of Appeal or the Caribbean Court of Justice, any question arises as to the contravention of any of the provisions of this Chapter the person presiding in that court may, and shall if any party to the proceedings so requests, refer the question to the High Court unless in his opinion the raising of the question is merely frivolous or vexatious.

(5) A person aggrieved by a decision of the High Court under this section may appeal against that decision to the Court of Appeal and is entitled as of right to a stay of execution of the order and the Court may grant him bail.

(6) Nothing in this section shall limit the power of Parliament to confer on the High Court or the Court of Appeal such powers as Parliament may think fit in relation to the exercise by the High Court or the Court of Appeal, as the case may be, of its jurisdiction in respect of the matters arising under this Chapter.

CHAPTER 2

CITIZENSHIP

Continuation of citizenship under former Constitution

35. A person who is a citizen under the former Constitution shall continue to be a citizen under this Constitution.

Acquisition of citizenship by birth or descent

36.(1) Subject to subsection (2), every person born in Trinidad and Tobago after the commencement of this Constitution shall become a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago at the date of his birth.

(2) A person shall not become a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago by virtue of subsection (1), if at the time of his birth-

- (a) neither of his parents is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago and either of them possesses such immunity from suit and legal process as is accorded to an envoy of a foreign sovereign power accredited to Trinidad and Tobago; or

- (b) either of his parents is an enemy alien and the birth occurred in a place then under occupation by the enemy.

(3) A person born outside Trinidad and Tobago after the commencement of this Constitution shall become a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago at the date of his birth if at that date either of his parents is, or was, but for his parent's death, a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago otherwise than by descent.

(4) Where a person is employed in the service of the Government or under an authority of the Government and is required to reside outside Trinidad and Tobago for the proper discharge of his functions, subsection (3) shall be read as if the words "otherwise than by descent" were deleted.

Commonwealth citizens

37.(1) Every person who under this Constitution or any Act is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago or, under any law for the time being in force in any country to which this section applies, is a citizen of that country shall, by virtue of that citizenship, have the status of a Commonwealth citizen.

11 and 12 Geo. VI C. 56

(2) Every person who is a British subject without citizenship under the British Nationality Act, 1948 of the United Kingdom or who continues to be a British subject under section 2 of that Act or who is a British subject under the British Nationality Act, 1965 of the United Kingdom shall, by virtue of that status, have the status of a Commonwealth citizen.

(3) The countries to which this section applies are Antigua and Barbuda, Australia, Bahamas, Bangladesh, Barbados, Belize, Botswana, Brunei, Cameroon, Canada, Cyprus, Dominica, Fiji, The Gambia, Ghana, Grenada, Guyana, India, Jamaica, Kenya, Kiribati, Lesotho, Malawi, Malaysia, Maldives, Malta, Mauritius, Mozambique, Namibia, Nauru, New Zealand, Nigeria, Pakistan, Papua New Guinea, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, Samoa, Seychelles, Sierra Leone, Singapore, Solomon Islands, South Africa, Sri Lanka, Swaziland, Tanzania, Tonga, Tuvalu, Uganda, United Kingdom, Vanuatu, and Zambia.

(4) The President may, by Order subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament, amend subsection (3).

Criminal liability of Commonwealth citizens

38.(1) A Commonwealth citizen who is not a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland who is not a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago, shall not be guilty of any offence against any law in force in Trinidad and Tobago by reason of anything done or omitted in any part of the Commonwealth other than Trinidad and Tobago or in the Republic of Ireland or in any foreign country unless-

- (a) the act or omission would be an offence if he were an alien; and
- (b) in the case of an act or omission in any part of the Commonwealth or in the Republic of Ireland, it would be an offence if the country in which the act was done or the omission made were a foreign country.

(2) In this section "foreign country" means a country (other than the Republic of Ireland) that is not part of the Commonwealth.

Powers of Parliament

39. Parliament may make provisions relating to citizenship including provision-

- (a) for the acquisition of citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago by persons who are not or do not become citizens of Trinidad and Tobago by virtue of this Chapter;

- (b) for depriving of his citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago any citizen of Trinidad and Tobago but only on the acquisition of citizenship of some other country in the case of a citizen by birth or descent;
- (c) for the renunciation by any person of his citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (d) for the re-acquisition by any person of his citizenship of Trinidad and Tobago.

Interpretation of Chapter 2

40.(1) In this Chapter-

"alien" means a person who is not a Commonwealth citizen, a British protected person or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland;

"British protected person" means a person who is a British protected person for the purpose of the British Nationality Act, 1948 of the United Kingdom.

(2) For the purpose of this Chapter, a person born outside Trinidad and Tobago aboard a registered ship or aircraft, or aboard an unregistered ship or aircraft of the government of any country, shall assume the citizenship of his mother.

CHAPTER 3

THE PRESIDENT

Establishment of office and election of 41.(1) There shall be a President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago who shall be the Head of State and

President

Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces.

(2) The President shall be elected in accordance with this Chapter.

(3) The executive authority of Trinidad and Tobago shall be vested in the President and, subject to this Constitution, may be exercised by him directly or through officers subordinate to him.

Qualification for office of President

42.(1) A person is qualified to be nominated for election as President if he has been elected at a general election to serve as a member of the House of Representatives.

(2) A person is not qualified to be nominated for election as President, or to act in, or to hold the office of President, if he has held the office of President for a cumulative period of ten years.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the cumulative period of ten years shall include the period of service of a person as President for the unexpired portion of the term of office of some other person as President.

Other conditions of office of President

43.(1) Where a member of the House of Representatives is elected as President, his seat in the House of Representatives shall become vacant on the date he assumes office as the President.

(2) The President shall not hold any other office of emolument or profit whether in the public service or otherwise, nor engage in any occupation for reward other than the duties of his office.

(3) Where a person is acting as, or performing the functions of, the President under sections 51 or 52, he shall cease temporarily to perform any other functions.

(4) The President shall receive such salary and allowances as may be prescribed.

(5) The salary and allowances of the President and his other terms of service shall not be altered to his disadvantage after he has assumed office.

(6) A person who has held the office of President shall, upon expiration of his term of office, receive such pension or gratuity as may be prescribed and such pension or gratuity shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

Establishment of office and election of Vice-President

44. There shall be a Vice-President of Trinidad and Tobago who shall be elected in accordance with this Chapter.

Qualification for office of Vice-President

45. A person is qualified to be nominated for election as Vice-President if he has been elected at a general election to serve as a member of the House of Representatives.

Other conditions of office of Vice-President

46.(1) Where a member of the House of Representatives is elected as Vice-President, his seat in the House of Representatives shall not become vacant when he assumes office as the Vice-President.

(2) Except in the case of a person acting as, or performing the functions of, the Vice-President under sections 51 or 52, the Vice-President shall not hold any other office of emolument or profit whether in the public service or otherwise, nor engage in any occupation for reward other than the duties of his office.

(3) The salary and allowances of the Vice-President and his other terms of service shall not be altered to his disadvantage after he has assumed office.

Transitional provision

47. The person holding the office of President under the former Constitution at the commencement of this Constitution shall hold the office of President under this Constitution until a President is elected in accordance with this Chapter and takes and subscribes the oath of office set out in the First Schedule.

First Schedule

Holding of election for President and Vice-President

48.(1) When the House of Representatives first meets after any general election and has elected the Speaker of the House and the Deputy Speaker of the House but before it proceeds to the despatch of any other business, it shall elect the President and the Vice-President .

(2) The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be responsible for the holding of elections for the President and the Vice-President and each election shall be held separately.

Procedure for balloting

49.(1) The election of the President and the Vice-President respectively shall be by voting by secret ballot.

(2) The candidate who-

(a) is unopposed; or

(b) obtains the greatest number of the votes cast,

for the office of President or Vice-President, as the case may be, shall be declared by the Speaker elected.

(3) Where the votes cast for two or more candidates are equally divided, fresh election for the office of President or Vice-President shall be held as soon as practicable.

(4) The President who is elected shall assume office on the expiration of thirty days next after his election.

Term of office

50. Subject to sections 51 and 53, a President elected under section 49 shall hold office until a President is elected and assumes office under section 49.

Temporary absence of President

51.(1) Where the President is incapable of performing his functions as President by reason of his absence from Trinidad and Tobago or by reason of illness or otherwise, the Vice-President shall act temporarily as President.

(2) Where under subsection (1) the Vice-President acts temporarily as President, the Vice-President shall temporarily cease to perform his functions as a member of the House of Representatives.

(3) Where the Vice-President ceases to act temporarily as the President, he shall resume the performance of his functions as a member of the House of Representatives

(4) Where the Vice-President is for any reason unable to act as the President under subsection (1), the Speaker shall temporarily perform the functions of the President.

Where office of President vacant

52.(1) Subject to subsection (2), where the office of President becomes vacant under section 53 before the dissolution of Parliament, an election shall be held in accordance with section 49 to fill the vacancy as soon as practicable after the occurrence of the vacancy.

(2) Where the office of President becomes vacant under section 53, section 51 shall apply.

Vacation of office

53.(1) The office of President shall become vacant where-

- (a) the person holding that office dies;

- (b) resigns by writing signed by him and addressed and delivered to the Speaker; or
 - (c) he is removed from office under section 54.
- (2) The office of the President shall also become vacant -
- (a) when after any dissolution of Parliament he is informed by the Speaker that the House of Representatives has elected him as President or has elected another member as President; or
 - (b) where for any reason other than a dissolution of Parliament he is not qualified to be a member of the House of Representatives.

Removal of President from office

54.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the President shall vacate his office where the House of Representatives passes a resolution, supported by the votes of a majority of all the members of the House, declaring that it has no confidence in the President.

(2) Where a resolution is passed under subsection (1), the President shall continue to hold office until a President is elected and assumes office.

(3) The succeeding President shall assume office in accordance with section 49(4).

Removal of Vice-President from office

55.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Vice-President shall vacate his office where the House of Representatives passes a resolution, supported by the votes of a majority of all the members of the House, declaring that it has no confidence in the Vice-President.

(2) Where a resolution is passed under subsection (1), the Vice-President shall continue to hold office until a Vice-President is elected and assumes office.

(3) The succeeding Vice-President shall assume office immediately upon his election.

(4) The Vice-President shall also vacate his office-

(a) when after any dissolution of Parliament he is informed by the Speaker that the House of Representatives has elected him as President or Vice-President or has elected another person as Vice-President; or

(b) where for any reason other than a dissolution of Parliament he is not qualified to be a member of the House of Representatives.

Oath

56.(1) The President and Vice-President shall before entering upon the duties of their respective office take and subscribe the oath of office set out in the First Schedule, such oath being administered by the Chief Justice or such other Judge as may be designated by the Chief Justice.

First Schedule

(2) Subsection (1) shall apply to any person required under this Constitution to perform the functions of the office of President or Vice-President as it applies to a person elected as such.

(3) Where the date for the assumption of office of the President or the Vice-President falls on a Sunday or public holiday, the President or Vice-President respectively shall assume office on the next following day that is not a Sunday or public holiday.

Immunities of
the President

57.(1) The President shall not be answerable to any court for the performance of the functions of his office or for any act done by him in the performance of those functions.

(2) Without the fiat of the Director of Public Prosecutions, no criminal proceedings shall be instituted or continued against the President in any court during his term of office and no process for the President's arrest or imprisonment shall be issued from any court or shall be executed during his term of office.

(3) No civil proceedings in which relief is claimed against the President shall be instituted during his term of office in any court in respect of any act done by him in his personal capacity whether before or after he entered the office of President, except on the condition specified in subsection (4).

(4) The condition referred to in subsection (3) is that two months shall elapse after a notice in writing has been served on the President either by registered post or by being left at his office stating the nature of the proceedings, the cause of action, the name, description and address of the party instituting the proceedings and the relief claimed.

(5) A period of limitation prescribed shall not run in favour of the President in respect of a civil action during the period of two months after a notice in respect of that action has been served on him under subsection (4).

Determination of questions as to elections

58.(1) Subject to subsection (2), where there is an election for the office of President or Vice-President, as the case may be, an instrument which-

(a) in the case of an uncontested election, is signed and sealed by the Speaker and states that a person named in the instrument was the only person nominated for the election and was in consequence declared elected; or

- (b) in the case of a contested election, is signed and sealed by the Speaker and states that a person named in the instrument was declared elected at that meeting in consequence of the ballot, shall be conclusive evidence that the person so named was so elected, and no question as to the validity of the election of the person so named shall be inquired into in any court.

(2) The Court of Appeal shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any question as to the validity of an election of a President or Vice-President, as the case may be, in so far as that question depends upon the qualification of any person for election or the interpretation of this Chapter, and the decision of that Court under this subsection shall be final.

(3) Parliament may make provisions with respect to the persons by whom, the manner in which and the conditions upon which the proceedings under subsection (2) may be instituted in the Court of Appeal and subject to any provisions so made, provisions may be made with respect to these matters by rules of court, and until such provisions or rules are made the procedure for moving the Court of Appeal shall be by way of a representation petition.

CHAPTER 4

PARLIAMENT

PART 1

COMPOSITION OF PARLIAMENT

Establishment

Establishment of Parliament

59. There shall be a Parliament of Trinidad and Tobago which shall consist of the President, the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The Senate

Composition of Senate

60.(1) The Senate shall consist of forty-nine members (in this Constitution referred to as "Senators") who shall be appointed or assigned seats in accordance with this Part.

(2) The Senators shall be appointed or assigned seats as follows-

- (a) twenty-eight shall be appointed by the Local Government bodies in accordance with section 62;
- (b) three shall be appointed by the House of Assembly in accordance with section 63; and
- (c) eighteen shall be assigned seats by the Elections and Boundaries Commission in accordance with section 64.

Qualification for appointment as a Senator

61. Subject to section 65, a person shall be qualified to be appointed as a Senator if, and shall not be qualified to be so appointed unless, he is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago of the age of twenty-five years or upwards.

Holding of election by Local Government body

62.(1) Each Local Government body shall elect two persons as Senators to represent the local and regional interest and concern of the Local Government body and the community.

(2) No person who is a member of a Local Government body is qualified to be elected as a Senator.

(3) The Mayor or Chairman of the Local Government body shall be responsible for the holding of elections for the appointment of both Senators and each election shall be held separately.

(4) The election of the two Senators shall be by voting by secret ballot.

(5) The candidate who-

(a) is unopposed; or

(b) obtains the greatest number of the votes cast,

for the office of Senator shall be declared by the Mayor or Chairman elected.

(6) Where the votes cast for two or more candidates are equally divided, fresh election for the office of Senator shall be held as soon as practicable.

(7) The Mayor or Chairman of the Local Government body shall certify, to the President of the Senate, the names of the persons elected as Senators.

Fourth Schedule

(8) The President may by Order amend the Fourth Schedule.

Holding of election by House of Assembly

63.(1) The House of Assembly shall elect three persons as Senators to represent the interest and concern of Tobago.

(2) No person who is a member of the House of Assembly is qualified to be elected as a Senator.

(3) The Chief Secretary of the House of Assembly shall be responsible for the holding of elections for the appointment of the three Senators and each election shall be held separately.

(4) The election of the three Senators shall be by voting by secret ballot.

- (5) The candidate who-
 - (a) is unopposed; or
 - (b) obtains the greatest number of the votes cast, for the office of Senator shall be declared by the Chief Secretary elected.

(6) Where the votes cast for two or more candidates are equally divided, fresh election for the office of Senator shall be held as soon as practicable.

(7) The Chief Secretary of the House of Assembly shall certify, to the President of the Senate, the names of the persons elected as Senators.

Election of Senators by proportional representation

64.(1) The eighteen Senators mentioned in section 60(2)(c) shall each be assigned a seat in accordance with this section.

(2) The votes cast by electors eligible to vote in a general election shall be the basis on which the eighteen Senators shall be assigned seats.

(3) A quota of votes per seat (“the quota”) shall be determined by dividing the total number of votes cast in the general election by eighteen to the nearest odd number.

(4) The number of seats in the Senate to be allocated to each political party shall be determined by dividing the total number of votes received by each party in the general election by the quota determined under subsection (3).

(5) Where the result of the computation under subsection (4) yields surpluses of votes not utilised by the number of seats allocated to the parties under subsection (4), any seat or seats that remain unallocated shall be allocated to each party as follows:

- (a) the party with the highest surplus is first allocated one of the remaining seats;
- (b) the party with the next highest surplus is then allocated one of the remaining seats (if any); and
- (c) the process of allocation shall continue on the same basis by further allocations to the other parties until all the unallocated seats are allocated to the parties with surpluses.

(6) After the allocation process is completed, the Elections and Boundaries Commission shall make a public declaration of the number of seats allocated in accordance with subsections (4) and (5) to each political party.

(7) The parties to which seats have been allocated under this section shall, within five days of the allocation, submit to the Elections and Boundaries Commission, a list of the names of the persons they have selected to be assigned seats as members of the Senate.

(8) Upon receipt of the list mentioned in subsection (7), the Elections and Boundaries Commission shall certify the list of each party and forward each certified list to the President of the Senate not later than three days of receipt of each list under subsection (7).

(9) Within three days of forwarding the list to the President of the Senate, the Elections and Boundaries Commission shall make a public declaration of the names of the person assigned seats as Senators and the political parties they represent.

(10) Parliament may enact legislation to give further effect to sections 62 and 63, and this section.

Disqualification for appointment as Senator

65.(1) No person shall be qualified to be appointed as a Senator who-

- (a) is a citizen of a country other than Trinidad and Tobago having become such a citizen voluntarily or is under a declaration of allegiance to such a country;
- (b) is a member of the House of Representatives;
- (c) is disqualified for membership of the House of Representatives by virtue of any law which provides that a person who is convicted of an offence relating to elections is disqualified for membership of the House of Representatives;
- (d) is an undischarged bankrupt having been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in Trinidad and Tobago;
- (e) is mentally ill, within the meaning of the Mental Health Act;
- (f) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court or is serving a sentence of imprisonment, by whatever name called, exceeding twelve months imposed on him by a court or substituted by competent authority for some other sentence imposed on him by a court, or is under such a sentence of imprisonment the execution of which has been suspended; or
- (g) is not qualified to be registered as an elector at a parliamentary election under any law.

Chap. 28:02

(2) Parliament may provide that, subject to such exceptions and limitations, if any, as may be prescribed, a person shall be disqualified for membership of the Senate by virtue of-

- (a) his holding or acting in any office or appointment, either individually or by reference to a class of office or appointment;
- (b) his belonging to any of the armed forces of the State or to any class of person that is comprised in any such force; or
- (c) his belonging to any police force or to any class of person that is comprised in any such force.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1)(f)-

- (a) two or more sentences of imprisonment that are required to be served consecutively shall be regarded as separate sentences if none of those sentences exceeds twelve months, but if any one of such sentences exceeds that term they shall be regarded as one sentence; and
- (b) no account shall be taken of a sentence of imprisonment imposed as an alternative to or in default of the payment of a fine.

Tenure of office
of Senators

66.(1) Subject to section 67, every Senator shall vacate his seat in the Senate at the next dissolution of Parliament after his appointment.

(2) A Senator shall also vacate his seat in the Senate where-

- (a) he is absent from the sittings of the Senate for such period and in such circumstances as may be specified in the rules of procedure of the Senate;
- (b) with his consent, he is nominated as a candidate for election to the House of Representatives, or he is elected to be a member of the House of Representatives;
- (c) he ceases to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago; or
- (d) subject to subsection (3), any circumstances arise that, if he were not a Senator, would cause him to be disqualified for appointment as such by virtue of section 65(1) or any law enacted in pursuance of section 65(2).

(3) Where circumstances such as are referred to in subsection (2)(d) arise because a Senator is under sentence of death or imprisonment, is mentally ill, declared bankrupt or convicted of an offence relating to elections, and where it is open to the Senator to appeal against the decision, either with the leave of a court or other authority or without such leave, he shall immediately cease to perform his functions as a Senator, but, subject to this section, he shall not vacate his seat until the expiration of a period of thirty days thereafter.

(4) The President of the Senate may extend the period specified in subsection (3) for further periods of thirty days to enable the Senator to pursue an appeal against the decision, but extensions of time exceeding in the aggregate one hundred and fifty days shall not be given without the approval, signified by resolution, of the Senate.

(5) Where on the determination of an appeal, such circumstances continue to exist and no further appeal is open to the Senator, or where, by reason of the expiration of any period for entering an appeal or notice to appeal or the refusal of leave to appeal or for any other reason, it ceases to be open to the Senator to appeal, he shall immediately vacate his seat.

(6) Where at any time before the Senator vacates his seat, such circumstances as are mentioned in this section cease to exist, his seat shall not become vacant on the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (3) and he may resume the performance of his functions as a Senator.

Removal of Senators from office

67.(1) A Senator who is appointed under section 62 shall vacate his office where the Local Government body passes a resolution, supported by the votes of a majority of all the members of the Local Government body, declaring that it has no confidence in the Senator.

(2) A Senator who is appointed under section 63 shall vacate his office where the House of Assembly passes a resolution, supported by the votes of a majority of all the members of the House of Assembly, declaring that it has no confidence in the Senator.

(3) A Senator who is assigned a seat under section 64 shall vacate his seat where the leader of the political party on whose advice he was assigned such a seat advises the President of the Senate that a new Senator is to be appointed and the President of the Senate declares his seat vacant.

Appointment of temporary Senators

68.(1) Where a Senator is incapable of performing his functions as a Senator by virtue of section 66(3) or by reason of-

- (a) his absence from Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) illness; or
- (c) otherwise,

the President of the Senate may appoint a person qualified for appointment as a Senator to be temporarily a member of the Senate during such suspension, absence, illness or otherwise.

(2) Section 66(1) and (2) shall apply in relation to a person appointed under this section as they apply in relation to a Senator, except that subsection (2)(d) shall apply as if it were not expressed to be subject to section 66(3), and an appointment made under this section shall in any case cease to have effect if the person appointed is notified by the President of the Senate that the circumstances giving rise to his appointment have ceased to exist.

(3) In the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by this section the President of the Senate shall act-

- (a) in accordance with the advice of the Mayor or Chairman of a Local Government body in relation to a Senator appointed in pursuance of section 62;
- (b) in accordance with the advice of the Chief Secretary of the House of Assembly in relation to a Senator appointed in pursuance of section 63; and
- (c) in accordance with the advice of the leader of the political party in relation to a Senator assigned a seat in pursuance of section 64.

President and Vice-President of the Senate

69.(1) When the Senate first meets after any general election and before it proceeds to the despatch of any other business, it shall elect a Senator, to be President of the Senate.

(2) When the office of President of the Senate falls vacant at any time before the next dissolution of Parliament, the Senate shall, as soon as practicable, elect another Senator to that office.

(3) When the Senate first meets after any general election and before it proceeds to the despatch of any other business except the election of the President of the Senate, it shall elect a Senator to be Vice-President of the Senate.

(4) When the office of Vice-President of the Senate falls vacant at any time before the next dissolution of Parliament, the Senate shall, as soon as convenient, elect another Senator to that office.

(5) The Senate shall not elect a Senator who is a Minister to be the President of the Senate or the Vice-President of the Senate.

(6) A person shall vacate the office of President of the Senate or Vice-President of the Senate where-

- (a) he ceases to be a Senator; but the President of the Senate shall not vacate his office by reason only that he has ceased to be a Senator on a dissolution of Parliament until the Senate first meets after that dissolution;
- (b) he is appointed to be a Minister;
- (c) he announces the resignation of his office to the Senate or where, by writing signed by him and addressed, in the case of the President of the Senate, to the Clerk of the Senate, and in the case of the Vice-President of the Senate to the President of the Senate (or, where the office of President of the Senate is vacant or the President of the Senate is absent from Trinidad and Tobago, to the Clerk of the Senate), he resigns that office; or

(d) he dies.

(7) Where, by virtue of section 66(3), the President of the Senate or Vice-President of the Senate is required to cease to perform his functions as a Senator he shall also cease to perform his functions as President of the Senate or Vice-President of the Senate, as the case may be, and those functions shall, until he vacates his seat in the Senate or resumes the performance of the functions of his office, be performed-

(a) in the case of the President of the Senate by the Vice-President of the Senate or if the office of Vice-President of the Senate is vacant or the Vice-President of the Senate is required to cease to perform his functions as a Senator by virtue of section 66(3) by such Senator not being a Minister as the Senate may elect for the purpose;

(b) in the case of the Vice-President of the Senate by such Senator not being a Minister as the Senate may elect for the purpose.

(8) Where the President of the Senate or Vice-President of the Senate resumes the performance of his functions as a Senator, in accordance with section 66(6), he shall also resume the performance of his functions as President of the Senate or Vice-President of the Senate, as the case may be.

The House of Representatives

Composition of the House of Representatives

70.(1) Subject to this section, the House of Representatives shall consist of members who shall be elected in the manner as prescribed.

(2) There shall be forty-one members of the House of Representatives or such other number of members as corresponds with the number of constituencies as provided for by an Order made by the President under section 101.

(3) Where a person who is not a member of the House of Representatives is elected to be Speaker of the House he shall, by virtue of holding the office of Speaker, be a member of the House in addition to the forty-one members or other number of members provided for by an Order made by the President under section 101.

Qualifications for election as member

71. Subject to section 72, a person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the House of Representatives if, and shall not be qualified to be so elected unless, he-

- (a) is a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago of the age of eighteen years or upwards; and
- (b) has resided in Trinidad and Tobago for a period of two years immediately before the date of his nomination for election or is domiciled and resident in Trinidad and Tobago at that date.

Disqualifications for election as member

72.(1) No person shall be qualified to be elected as a member of the House of Representatives who-

Chap. 28:02

- (a) is a citizen of a country other than Trinidad and Tobago having become such a citizen voluntarily, or is under a declaration of allegiance to such a country;
- (b) is an undischarged bankrupt having been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in Trinidad and Tobago;
- (c) is mentally ill, within the meaning of the Mental Health Act;
- (d) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court or is serving a sentence of imprisonment, by whatever name called, exceeding twelve months imposed on him by a court or substituted by competent authority for some other sentence imposed on him by a court, or is under such a sentence of imprisonment the execution of which has been suspended;
- (e) is disqualified for membership of the House of Representatives by any law in force in Trinidad and Tobago by reason of his holding, or acting in, any office the functions of which involve-
 - (i) any responsibility for, or in connection with, the conduct of any election; or
 - (ii) any responsibility for the compilation or revision of any electoral register;

- (f) is disqualified for membership of the House of Representatives by virtue of any law in force in Trinidad and Tobago by reason of his having been convicted of any offence relating to elections; or
- (g) is not qualified to be registered as an elector at a parliamentary election under any law in force in Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) Parliament may provide that, subject to such exceptions and limitations, if any, as may be prescribed, a person may be disqualified for membership of the House of Representatives by virtue of-

- (a) his holding or acting in any office or appointment, either individually or by reference to a class of office or appointment;
- (b) his belonging to any of the armed forces of the State or to any class of person that is comprised in any such force; or
- (c) his belonging to any police force or to any class of person that is comprised in any such force.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1)(d) -

- (a) two or more sentences of imprisonment that are required to be served consecutively shall be regarded as separate sentences if none of those sentences exceeds twelve months, but if any one of such sentences exceeds that term they shall be regarded as one sentence; and

- (b) no account shall be taken of a sentence of imprisonment imposed as an alternative to or in default of the payment of a fine.

Tenure of office
of members

73.(1) Every member of the House of Representatives shall vacate his seat in the House at the next dissolution of Parliament.

(2) A member of the House of Representatives shall also vacate his seat in the House where-

- (a) he resigns it by writing signed by him and addressed to the Speaker, or where the office of Speaker is vacant or the Speaker is absent from Trinidad and Tobago, to the Deputy Speaker;
- (b) he is absent from the sittings of the House for such period and in such circumstances as may be specified in the rules of procedure of the House;
- (c) he ceases to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (d) subject to subsection (3), any circumstances arise that, if he were not a member of the House of Representatives, would cause him to be disqualified for election to the House by virtue of section 72(1) or any law enacted in pursuance of section 72(2).

(3) Where circumstances such as are referred to in subsection (2)(d) arise because a member of the House of Representatives is under sentence of death or imprisonment, mentally ill, declared bankrupt or convicted of an offence relating to elections, and where it is open to the member to appeal against the decision, either with the leave of a court or other authority or without such leave, he shall immediately cease to perform his functions as a member of the House, but, subject to this section, he shall not vacate his seat until the expiration of a period of thirty days thereafter.

(4) The Speaker may, from time to time, extend the period specified in subsection (3) for further periods of thirty days to enable the member to pursue an appeal against the decision, but extensions of time exceeding in the aggregate one hundred and fifty days shall not be given without the approval, signified by resolution, of the House.

(5) Where on the determination of any appeal, such circumstances continue to exist and no further appeal is open to the member, or where, by reason of the expiration of any period of entering an appeal or notice of appeal or the refusal of leave to appeal or for any other reason, it ceases to be open to the member to appeal, he shall immediately vacate his seat.

(6) Where at any time before the member of the House vacates his seat such circumstances as are mentioned in this section cease to exist his seat shall not become vacant on the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (3) and he may resume the performance of his functions as a member of the House.

Speaker and Deputy Speaker

74.(1) When the House of Representatives first meets after any general election and before it proceeds to the despatch of any other business, it shall elect a person to be the Speaker of the House.

(2) When the office of Speaker falls vacant at any time before the next dissolution of Parliament, the House shall, as soon as practicable, elect another person to that office.

(3) The Speaker may be elected either from among the members of the House of Representatives who is not a Minister, or subject to subsection (4), from among persons who are not members of either House.

(4) A person who is not a member of either House shall not be elected Speaker where-

- (a) he is not a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago;
or
- (b) he is a person disqualified for election as a member of the House of Representatives by virtue of section 72(1) or any law enacted in pursuance of section 72(2).

(5) When the House of Representatives first meets after any general election and before it proceeds to the despatch of any other business except the election of the Speaker, the House shall elect a member of the House, who is not a Minister, to be the Deputy Speaker of the House.

(6) When the office of Deputy Speaker falls vacant at any time before the next dissolution of Parliament, the House shall, as soon as practicable, elect another such member to that office.

(7) A person shall vacate the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker-

- (a) in the case of a Speaker elected from among the members of the House of Representatives or in the case of the Deputy Speaker-
 - (i) where he ceases to be a member of the House, but the Speaker shall not vacate his office by reason only that

- he has ceased to be a member of the House on a dissolution of Parliament, until the House first meets after that dissolution;
 - (ii) where he is appointed to be a Minister;
 - (b) in the case of a Speaker elected from among persons who are not members of either House-
 - (i) when the House first meets after any dissolution of Parliament;
 - (ii) where he ceases to be a citizen of Trinidad and Tobago; or
 - (iii) where any circumstances arise that would cause him to be disqualified for election as a member of the House by virtue of section 72(1) or any law enacted in pursuance of section 72(2);
 - (c) where he announces the resignation of his office to the House of Representatives or if by writing signed by him and addressed, in the case of the Speaker, to the Clerk of the House and in the case of the Deputy Speaker, to the Speaker, or, if the office of Speaker is vacant or the Speaker is absent from Trinidad and Tobago, to the Clerk of the House, he resigns that office; or
 - (d) in the case of the Deputy Speaker, where he is elected to be Speaker.
- (8) Where, by virtue of section 73(3), the Speaker or

Deputy Speaker is required to cease to perform his functions as a member of the House of Representatives or where, in the case of the Speaker, by reason of circumstances referred to in subsection (10) or section 75(1), he has temporarily vacated his office, he shall also cease to perform his functions as Speaker or Deputy Speaker, as the case may be, and those functions shall, until he vacates his seat in the House or resumes the performance of the functions of his office, be performed-

- (a) in the case of the Speaker, by the Deputy Speaker or, if the office of Deputy Speaker is vacant or the Deputy Speaker is required to cease to perform his functions as a member of the House of Representatives by virtue of section 73(3) by such member of the House, not being a Minister, as the House may elect for the purpose;
- (b) in the case of the Deputy Speaker, by such member of the House, not being a Minister, as the House may elect for the purpose.

(9) Where the Speaker or Deputy Speaker resumes the performance of his functions as a member of the House, in accordance with section 73(3) he shall also resume the performance of his functions as Speaker or Deputy Speaker, as the case may be.

(10) Where the Speaker is acting as or performing the functions of President under section 51(4), he shall vacate the office of Speaker temporarily during such period as he is acting as, or temporarily performing the functions of, President.

Removal of Speaker

75.(1) Upon delivery by the Clerk of the House to the Speaker of a resolution signed by a majority of the members of the House that the Speaker may be removed from office, (hereinafter referred to as "the resolution") the Speaker shall vacate his office temporarily and cease to perform his functions as Speaker.

(2) The resolution shall state the grounds on which the Speaker's removal from office is proposed.

(3) The Speaker may, within twenty-one days of the delivery of the resolution, supply to the Clerk of the House in writing any grounds on which he resists his removal from office, and the Clerk of the House shall supply a copy of those grounds to each member of the House.

(4) Unless a motion in support of the resolution is moved in the House-

(a) within fourteen days of the receipt by the Clerk of the House of the grounds supplied by the Speaker; or

(b) where no such grounds have been supplied, within fourteen days of the time specified in subsection (3), the Speaker shall resume the performance of his functions as Speaker.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (9), a resolution left at the office of the Speaker is deemed to be delivered at the time it is so left.

(6) Where the motion in subsection (4) is passed, the Clerk of the House shall within seven days of the passing of the motion referred to in subsection (4) transmit the records of proceedings in the House to a Special Tribunal comprising a Chairman and two other members appointed by the President after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition (hereinafter referred to as "the Tribunal").

(7) The record shall include the resolution, the grounds supplied by the Speaker and the speeches made by Members of the House upon debate of the resolution.

(8) The Tribunal shall review the record and within twenty-one days of its receipt of the record shall make a recommendation to the House accompanied by a brief statement of its reasons therefor either-

(a) confirming that the Speaker should vacate office; or

(b) withholding confirmation.

(9) Where the Tribunal confirms that the Speaker should vacate office he shall do so immediately upon delivery to him of the confirmation of the Tribunal by the Clerk of the House.

(10) Where the Tribunal withholds confirmation, the House, by resolution, may resolve not to follow the recommendation of the Tribunal and to confirm the motion that the Speaker should vacate office and where such a resolution is passed the Speaker shall vacate his office immediately.

(11) During the period of review by the Tribunal the Speaker shall not resume performance of his functions as Speaker.

Qualifications of voters

76. Subject to such disqualifications as Parliament may prescribe, a person shall be qualified to vote at a general election if, and shall not be qualified to vote at a general election unless, he-

(a) is a Commonwealth citizen (within the meaning of section 37) of the age of eighteen years or upwards; and

(b) has such other qualifications regarding residence or registration as may be prescribed.

General

Determination of questions of membership

77.(1) Any question whether-

- (a) a person has been validly elected or assigned a seat as a Senator or validly elected as a member of the House of Representatives;
- (b) a Senator or member of the House of Representatives has vacated his seat or is required, under section 66(3) or 73(3) to cease to exercise any of his functions as a Senator or as a member of the House of Representatives; or
- (c) any person has been validly elected as Speaker of the House of Representatives from among persons who are not Senators or members of the House of Representatives, shall be determined by the High Court.

(2) Proceedings for the determination of any question referred to in subsection (1) shall not be instituted except with the leave of a Judge of the High Court.

(3) An appeal shall lie to the Court of Appeal as of right from-

- (a) the decision of a Judge of the High Court granting or refusing leave to institute proceedings for the determination of any question referred to in subsection (1);
- (b) the determination by the High Court of any question referred to in subsection (1).

(4) No appeal shall lie from any decision of the Court of Appeal given in an appeal brought in accordance with subsection (3).

PART II

Powers, Privileges and Procedure of Parliament

Power to make laws

10 & 11 Eliz. 2
c. 54

78. Parliament may make laws for the peace, order and good government of Trinidad and Tobago, but the provisions of this Constitution or (in so far as it forms part of the law of Trinidad and Tobago) the Trinidad and Tobago Independence Act, 1962 of the United Kingdom may not be altered except in accordance with section 79.

Alteration of this Constitution

79.(1) Subject to this section, Parliament may alter any of the provisions of this Constitution or (in so far as it forms part of the law of Trinidad and Tobago) the Trinidad and Tobago Independence Act, 1962.

(2) In so far as it alters-

(a) sections 4 to 34, 39(b), 40, 66(1), 78, 83, 92, 96(2), 99, 111, 131 to 140, 145, 147, 149, 152 to 162, 167 to 171, or 181 to 184;
or

(b) section 3 in its application to any of the sections specified in paragraph (a), a Bill for an Act under this section shall not be passed by Parliament unless at the final vote thereon in each House it is supported by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all the members of each House.

(3) In so far as it alters-

(a) this section;

- (b) sections 41 to 46, 48 to 58, 59, 60, 70, 73, 76, 80, 86, 88, 89, 97, 98, 100, 101, 114 to 118, 120, 123(5) to (8), 124, 125, 143, 151, 185, 186, 189 to 195, or the Second and Third Schedules;
- (c) section 3 in its application to any of the provisions specified in paragraph (a) or (b);
or
- (d) any of the provisions of the Trinidad and Tobago Independence Act, 1962, a Bill for an Act under this section shall not be passed by Parliament unless it is supported at the final vote thereon-

- (i) in the House of Representatives by the votes of not less than three-fourths of all the members of the House; and
- (ii) in the Senate by the votes of not less than two-thirds of all the members of the Senate.

(4) For the purpose of subsections (2) and (3), the number of members of the Senate shall, even though circumstances requiring the appointment of temporary members in accordance with section 68(1) have arisen, continue to be the number of members specified in section 60(1).

(5) No Act other than an Act making provision for any particular case or class of case, inconsistent with provisions of this Constitution, not being those referred to in subsections (2) and (3), shall be construed as altering any of the provisions of this Constitution, or (in so far as it forms part of the law of Trinidad and Tobago) the Trinidad and Tobago Independence

Act, 1962, unless it is stated in the Act that it is an Act for that purpose.

(6) In this section reference to the alteration of any of the provision of this Constitution or the Trinidad and Tobago Independence Act, 1962, includes reference to repealing it with or without re-enactment, making different provision in place of it, making provision for any particular case or class of case inconsistent with it, modifying it, or suspending its operation for any period.

Privileges and immunities of Parliament

80.(1) Subject to this Constitution and to the rules and standing orders regulating the procedure of the Senate and House of Representatives, there shall be freedom of speech in the Senate and House of Representatives.

(2) No civil or criminal proceedings may be instituted against any member of either House for words spoken before, or written in a report to, the House of which he is a member or in which he has a right of audience under section 87 or a committee or any joint committee or meeting of the Senate and House of Representatives, or by reason of any matter or thing brought by him in either House by petition, bill, resolution, motion or otherwise, or for the publication by or under the authority of either House of any report, paper, votes or proceedings.

(3) In other respects, the powers, privileges and immunities of each House and of the members and the committees of each House shall be such as may be prescribed by Parliament after the commencement of this Constitution and until so prescribed shall be those of the House of Commons of the Parliament of the United Kingdom and of its members and committees at the commencement of this Constitution.

(4) A person called to give any evidence before either House or any committee shall enjoy the same privileges and immunities as a member of either House.

Regulation of procedure in each House

81.(1) Subject to this Constitution, each House may regulate its own procedure.

(2) Each House may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its membership (including any vacancy not filled when the House first meets after the commencement of this Constitution or after any dissolution of Parliament), and the presence or participation of any person not entitled to be present at or to participate in the proceedings of the House shall not invalidate those proceedings.

Oath of allegiance

82. No member of either House shall take part in the proceedings of that House (other than proceedings necessary for the purpose of this section) until he has made and subscribed before that House the oath of allegiance set out in the First Schedule, but the election of a Speaker and Deputy Speaker of the House of Representatives and the election of a President of the Senate and Vice-President of the Senate may take place before the members of the House of Representatives, or the members of the Senate, as the case may be, have made and subscribed such oath.

First Schedule

Presiding in the Senate and the House of Representatives

83.(1) The President of the Senate or, in his absence, the Vice-President of the Senate or, where they are both absent, a Senator, not being a Minister, elected by the Senate for that sitting shall preside at each sitting of the Senate.

(2) The Speaker or, in his absence, the Deputy Speaker or, where they are both absent, a member of the House of Representatives, not being a Minister, elected by the House for that sitting shall preside at that sitting of the House.

(3) Reference in this section to circumstances in which the President of the Senate or Vice-President of the Senate, Speaker or Deputy Speaker is absent includes reference to circumstances in which the office of President of the Senate or Vice-President of the Senate, Speaker or Deputy Speaker is vacant.

Voting

84.(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Constitution, all questions proposed for decision in either House shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members of the House present and voting.

(2) The President of the Senate or other member presiding in the Senate shall not vote unless on any question the votes are equally divided, in which case he shall have and exercise a casting vote.

(3) The Speaker or other member presiding in the House of Representatives shall not vote unless on any question the votes are equally divided, in which case he shall have and exercise a casting vote.

Quorum

85.(1) A quorum of the House of Representatives shall consist of fifteen members of the House and a quorum of the Senate shall consist of sixteen Senators, but the person presiding at the sitting of either House shall not be included in reckoning whether there is a quorum of that House present.

(2) Where at any sitting of either House any member of the House who is present draws the attention of the person presiding at the sitting of the absence of a quorum and, after such interval as may be specified by that House, the person presiding at the sitting ascertains that a quorum of the House is still not present the House shall be adjourned.

Mode of exercising legislative power

86.(1) Subject to this Constitution, the power of Parliament to make laws shall, except where otherwise authorised by an Act, be exercised by Bills passed by the House of Representatives and the Senate and assented to by the President.

(2) The President shall signify his assent when a Bill is presented to him for assent within fourteen days.

(3) A Bill shall not become law unless it has been duly passed and assented to in accordance with this Constitution.

(4) A Bill may be assented to during the period occurring between the end of one session of Parliament and the beginning of the next or at any subsequent time during the life of that Parliament.

Attendance of Ministers in either House

87.(1) A Minister, who is a Member of the House of Representatives and a Minister who is a Senator, has the right to attend any sitting of the Senate or the House of Representatives, respectively.

(2) A Minister, who is not a member of any House, may be required at the instance of the President of the Senate or the Speaker to attend any sitting of Senate or the House of Representatives, respectively.

(3) A Minister may not be required to attend any sitting of either House under subsection (1) or (2) except on the adoption by that House of a motion for the purpose.

(4) A Minister attending any sitting of the Senate or the House of Representatives under subsection (1) or (2) may take part in any debate or other proceedings concerning matters falling within his portfolio in such House and may speak on any motion before the House concerning such matters and move amendments to any such motions, but that Minister, if he is not a member of that House, shall have no vote thereon.

(5) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Attorney General from attending any sitting of the Senate or the House of Representatives, as the case may be, and taking part in debates and other proceedings and speaking on any motion before any such House, as the case may be, and moving amendments to any such motions even though the matter falls within the portfolio of some other Minister.

Introduction of Bills, etc.

88.(1) A Bill, other than a Money Bill, may be introduced in either House; a Money Bill shall not be introduced in the Senate.

(2) Except on the recommendation or with the consent of the Cabinet, neither House shall-

(a) proceed upon any Bill, including any amendment to a Bill, which, in the opinion of the person presiding, makes provision for any of the following purpose:

- (i) for imposing or increasing any tax;
- (ii) for imposing or increasing any charge on the revenues or other funds of Trinidad and Tobago or for altering any such charge otherwise than by reducing it; or
- (iii) for compounding or remitting any debt due to Trinidad and Tobago;

(b) proceed upon any motion, including any amendment to a motion, the effect of which, in the opinion of the person presiding, would be to make provision for any of the purpose specified in paragraph (a);or

- (c) receive any petition which, in the opinion of the person presiding, requests that provisions be made for any of the purpose specified in paragraph (a).

Restrictions on powers of Senate as to Money Bills

89.(1) Where a Money Bill, having been passed by the House of Representatives and sent to the Senate at least one month before the end of the session, is not passed by the Senate without amendment within one month after it is sent to the Senate, the Bill shall, unless the House of Representatives otherwise resolves, be presented to the President for assent notwithstanding that the Senate has not passed the Bill.

(2) There shall be endorsed on every Money Bill when it is sent to the Senate the certificate of the Speaker signed by him that it is a Money Bill.

(3) There shall be endorsed on every Money Bill that is presented to the President for assent in pursuance of subsection (1), the certificate of the Speaker signed by him that it is a Money Bill and that subsection (1) has been complied with.

Restrictions on powers of Senate as to Bills other than Money Bills

90.(1) Where any Bill, other than a Money Bill, is passed by the House of Representatives in two successive sessions, whether or not Parliament is dissolved between those sessions, and, having been sent to the Senate in each of those sessions at least one month before the end of the session, is not passed by the Senate in each of those sessions, that Bill shall, on its rejection for the second time by the Senate, unless the House of Representatives otherwise resolves, be presented to the President for assent notwithstanding that the Senate has not passed the Bill.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall have effect until at least six months have elapsed between the date on which the Bill is passed by the House of Representatives in the first session and the date on which it is passed by that House in the second session.

(3) For the purpose of this section, a Bill that is sent to the Senate from the House of Representatives in any session is deemed to be the same Bill as a former Bill sent to the Senate in the preceding session if, when it is sent to the Senate, it is identical with the former Bill or contains only such alterations as are certified by the Speaker to be necessary owing to the time that has elapsed since the date of the former Bill or to represent any amendments which have been made by the Senate in the former Bill in the preceding session.

(4) The House of Representatives may, if it thinks fit, on the passage through that House of a Bill that is deemed to be the same Bill as a former Bill sent to the Senate in the preceding session, suggest any amendments without inserting the amendments in the Bill, and any such amendments shall be considered by the Senate, and, if agreed to by the Senate, shall be treated as amendments made by the Senate and agreed to by the House of Representatives; but the exercise of this power by the House of Representatives shall not affect the operation of this section in the event of the rejection of the Bill in the Senate.

(5) For the purpose of this section, a Bill is deemed to be rejected by the Senate where-

- (a) it is not passed by the Senate without amendments; or
- (b) it is passed by the Senate with any amendment that is not agreed to by the House of Representatives.

(6) There shall be inserted in any Bill that is presented to the President for assent in pursuance of this section any amendments that are certified by the Speaker to have been made in the Bill by the Senate in the second session and agreed to by the House of Representatives.

(7) There shall be endorsed on any Bill that is presented to the President for assent in pursuance of this section the certificate of the Speaker signed by him that this section have been complied with.

(8) This section shall not apply to a Bill for an Act which is required by sections 33 or 79 to be supported at the final vote thereon in the Senate by the votes of not less than three-fifths or two-thirds respectively of all the members of the Senate.

Provisions relating to sections 88, 89 and 90

91.(1) In sections 88, 89 and 90, "Money Bill" means a public Bill which, in the opinion of the Speaker, contains only provisions dealing with all or any of the following matters:

- (a) the imposition, repeal, remission, alteration or regulation of taxation;
- (b) the imposition, for the payment of debt or other financial purpose, of charges on public money or the variation or repeal of any such charges;
- (c) the grant of money to the State or to any

- authority or person, or the variation or revocation of any such grant;
- (d) the appropriation, receipt, custody, investment, issue or audit of accounts of public money;
 - (e) the raising or guarantee of any loan or the repayment of such loan, or the establishment, alteration, administration or abolition of any sinking fund provided in connection with any such loan; or
 - (f) subordinate matters incidental to any of the matters referred to in this subsection.

(2) In subsection (1) the expressions "taxation", "debt", "public money" and "loan" do not include any taxation imposed, debt incurred or money provided or loan raised by any Local Government body for a local purpose.

(3) Where the office of Speaker is vacant or the Speaker is for any reason unable to perform any function conferred upon him by section 89 or 90 or subsection (1) that function may be performed by the Deputy Speaker.

(4) A certificate of the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker under section 89 or 90 shall be conclusive for all purpose and shall not be questioned in any court.

(5) Before giving any certificate under section 89 or 90 the Speaker or the Deputy Speaker, as the case may be, shall consult the Attorney General or, if the Attorney General is absent from the seat of Government, such legal officer in the Ministry of the Attorney General as the Attorney General may designate for that purpose.

Appointment of certain Select or Joint Select Committees

92.(1) Subject to subsection (2), it is hereby declared that -

- (a) in addition to any other Joint Select Committee which Parliament is empowered to appoint under its Standing Orders, Parliament shall, within one month of the first meeting of the House of Representatives after a general election, or such time as the Parliament may resolve not being later than three months after the general election, appoint Joint Select Committees to inquire into and report to both Houses of Parliament in respect of -
 - (i) Government Ministries;
 - (ii) Local Government bodies;
 - (iii) Statutory Authorities;
 - (iv) Enterprises owned or controlled by or on behalf of the State or which received funding from the State of more than two thirds of its total income in any one year; and
 - (v) Service Commissions,in relation to their administration, the manner of the exercise of their functions, their methods of functioning and any criteria adopted by them in the exercise of their functions;
- (b) for the purpose of this section, an enterprise shall be taken to be controlled by the State if the Government or any body controlled by the Government -

- (i) exercises or is entitled to exercise control directly or indirectly over the affairs of the enterprise;
 - (ii) is entitled to appoint a majority of the directors of the Board of Directors of the enterprise; or
 - (iii) holds at least fifty per cent of the ordinary share capital of the enterprise,
- as the case may be;
- (c) a Committee appointed for the purpose set out in paragraph (a) may -
 - (i) appoint sub-committees from among its members and delegate any of its functions to such sub-committee;
 - (ii) adjourn from place to place;
 - (iii) appoint specialist advisers to assist them in their deliberations;
 - (d) subject to any order of the House or resolution of a Committee, the sitting of that Committee shall be held in public;
 - (e) a Committee appointed for the purpose set out in paragraph (a) shall make a report of its opinion and observations which shall be laid in both Houses of Parliament.

(2) A Joint Select Committee in the exercise its functions under subsection (1) shall not enquire into the validity of the exercise of the functions of a body referred to in subsection (1)(a) nor modify, alter, rescind or in any way interfere with the decision of any such body.

(3) Subject to this section, the Standing Orders of the Senate and the House of Representatives shall apply to a Committee appointed under this section.

(4) Subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, a Committee may regulate its own procedure.

Reports of Service Commissions

93. Each Service Commission shall submit to the President, before 1st October in each year, a report on its administration, the manner of the exercise of its functions, its methods of functioning and any criteria adopted by it in the exercise of its functions in the previous year and the President shall cause the report to be laid within sixty days of receipt in each House.

Exemption of and reporting by Judicial and Legal Service
Commission

94.(1) Sections 92 and 93 shall not apply to the Judicial and Legal Service Commission.

(2) The Judicial and Legal Service Commission shall submit to the President, before 1st October in each year after the commencement of this Constitution, a report on the exercise of its functions in the previous year, describing the procedures followed and any criteria adopted by it in the exercise of its functions, and the President shall cause the report to be laid within sixty days of receipt in each House.

Report of Government Ministries, etc.

95. A body listed in section 92(1)(a)(i) to (iv) shall submit to the President, before 1st July in each year, a report on the exercise of its functions in the previous year, describing the procedures followed and any criteria adopted by it in the exercise of its functions and the President shall cause the report to be laid within sixty days of receipt in each House.

Part III

Summoning, Prorogation and Dissolution

Sessions of Parliament

96.(1) Each session of Parliament shall be held at such place within Trinidad and Tobago and shall commence at such time as the President may by Proclamation appoint.

(2) There shall be a session of each House once at least in every year, so that a period of six months shall not intervene between the last sitting of Parliament in one session and the first sitting thereof in the next session.

Prorogation and dissolution of Parliament

97.(1) The President may at any time prorogue or dissolve Parliament.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), Parliament, unless sooner dissolved, shall continue for five years from the date of its first sitting after any dissolution, and shall then stand dissolved.

(3) At any time when Trinidad and Tobago is at war, Parliament may extend the period of five years specified in subsection (2) for not more than twelve months at a time, but the life of Parliament shall not be extended under this subsection for more than five years.

(4) Where, between a dissolution of Parliament and the next ensuing general election, an emergency arises of such a nature that in the opinion of the President, it is necessary for the two Houses to be summoned before that general election can be held, the President may summon the two Houses of the preceding Parliament but the election of members of the House of Representatives shall proceed and the Parliament that has been summoned shall, if not sooner dissolved, again stand dissolved on the day on which the general election is held.

General election or bye-election

98.(1) A general election shall be held at such time within three months after every dissolution of Parliament as the President shall appoint.

(2) Where a vacancy occurs in the House of Representatives within the first four years of the life of the Parliament a bye-election shall be held to fill such vacancy.

PART IV

Elections and Boundaries Commission

Constituencies

99.(1) Trinidad and Tobago shall be divided into forty-one constituencies or such other number as may be provided for by an Order made by the President in accordance with this Part and each such constituency shall elect one member to the House of Representatives.

(2) Not less than two such constituencies shall be in the Island of Tobago.

Elections and Boundaries
Commission

100.(1) There shall be an Elections and Boundaries Commission for Trinidad and Tobago (in this Part referred to as "the Commission").

(2) The members of the Commission shall be a Chairman and not less than two nor more than four other members.

(3) The members of the Commission, including its Chairman, shall be appointed by the President, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition.

(4) A person shall not be qualified to hold office as a member of the Commission who is a Minister, a member of the House of Representatives or the Senate, a temporary member of the Senate, a member of the House of Assembly or of a Local Government body, or a public officer.

(5) Subject to this section, a member of the Commission shall vacate his office-

- (a) at the expiration of five years from the date of his appointment, but is eligible for re-appointment; or
- (b) where any circumstances arise, that, if he were not a member of the Commission, would cause him to be disqualified for appointment as such.

(6) Three members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum.

(7) Where there is a quorum, the Commission shall not be disqualified for the transaction of business by reason of a vacancy among its members, and any proceeding of the Commission shall be valid even though some person who was not entitled so to do took part in the proceeding.

(8) The Commission may regulate its own procedure.

(9) The Commission shall be provided with adequate staff and resources for the efficient and expeditious discharge of its functions.

(10) The salaries and allowances of the staff of the Commission shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

(11) It shall be the function of the Commission to direct and supervise the registration of voters and the conduct of elections in every constituency.

(12) The Commission shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority in the exercise of its functions.

Procedure for review of constituency boundaries

101.(1) The Commission shall, in accordance with this section, review the number and boundaries of the

Second Schedule

constituencies into which Trinidad and Tobago is divided and submit to the President and the Speaker for presentation to the House of Representatives in accordance with this section reports either-

- (a) showing the constituencies into which it recommends that Trinidad and Tobago should be divided in order to give effect to the rules set out in the Second Schedule; or
- (b) stating that, in the opinion of the Commission, no alteration is required to the existing number or boundaries of constituencies in order to give effect to the said rules.

(2) The Commission shall submit a report under subsection (1) not less than two nor more than five years from the date of the submission of its last report.

(3) As soon as may be after the Commission has submitted a report under subsection (1)(a) the Minister designated by the President for this purpose (in this section called "the Minister") shall lay before the House of Representatives for its approval the draft of an Order by the President for giving effect, whether with or without modifications, to the recommendations contained in the report, and that draft may make provision for any matters which appear to the Minister to be incidental to or consequential upon the other provisions of the draft.

(4) Where any draft made under this section gives effect to any such recommendations with modifications, the Minister shall lay before the House of Representatives together with the draft a statement of the reasons for the modifications.

(5) Where the motion for the approval of any draft made under this section is rejected by the House of Representatives, or is withdrawn by leave of that House, the Minister shall amend the draft and lay the amended draft before the House of Representatives.

(6) Where any draft made under this section is approved by resolution of the House of Representatives, the Minister shall submit it to the President who shall make the Order in terms of the draft.

(7) An Order made under subsection (6) shall come into force on such day as may be specified in the Order and, until revoked by a further Order made by the President in accordance with this section, shall have the force of law.

(8) The question of the validity of an Order by the President purporting to be made under this section and reciting that a draft of the Order has been approved by resolution of the House of Representatives shall not be enquired into in any court.

PART V

System of Balloting

System of balloting

102.(1) The election of members of the House of Representatives shall be by secret ballot and in accordance with the first-past-the-post system.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), the votes shall be cast in ballot boxes of a design calculated to ensure their efficiency and reliability.

CHAPTER 5

EXECUTIVE POWERS

The Cabinet

103.(1) There shall be a Cabinet for Trinidad and Tobago which shall aid and advise the President in the general direction and control of the Government.

(2) The Cabinet shall consist of the President, the Vice-President and such number of Ministers not exceeding twenty-five (of whom one shall be the Attorney General), appointed in accordance with section 104, as the President may consider appropriate.

Appointment of Ministers

104.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Ministers shall be such persons as the President shall appoint from among persons who are qualified to be elected as members of the House of Representatives.

(2) The President shall appoint not more than six members of the House of Representatives and not more than three Senators as Ministers.

(3) Except in the case of a person acting as a Minister, a Minister shall not hold any other office of emolument or profit whether in the public service or otherwise, nor engage in any occupation for reward other than the duties of his office.

Tenure of office of Ministers

105.(1) A Minister shall vacate his office-

- (a) when, subject to subsection (3), a person is appointed or reappointed as President;
- (b) where for any reason, other than a dissolution of Parliament, he ceases to be a member of the House from among the members of which he was appointed;

(c) where his appointment is revoked by the President.

(2) Where at any time a Minister, who is a member of any of the House, is required under section 66(3) or 73(3) to cease to perform his functions as a member of the House to which he belongs, he shall cease during such time to perform any of his functions as Minister.

(3) Where the office of the President becomes vacant under section 53, the Ministers shall continue to hold office until a new President is elected and assumes office in accordance with section 49(4).

Allocation of portfolios to Ministers

106.(1) The President may, by directions in writing, assign to any Minister responsibility for any business of the Government, including the administration of any department of Government.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), the Attorney General shall be responsible for the administration of legal affairs in Trinidad and Tobago and legal proceedings for and against the State shall be taken-

(a) in the case of civil proceedings, in the name of the Attorney General;

(b) in the case of criminal proceedings, in the name of the State.

(3) Where a Minister is assigned responsibility for any department of Government, he shall exercise general direction and control over that department.

(4) Subject to section 104, where a Minister is incapable of performing his functions by reason of his absence from Trinidad and Tobago or by reason of illness or otherwise, the President may appoint any person to act in the office of such Minister during such incapacity.

Ministers to report to Parliament

107. The Speaker of the House of Representatives or the President of the Senate may at any time require a Minister to appear in either House and report on the performance of his duties.

Oath to be taken by Ministers

108. A Minister shall not enter upon the duties of his office unless he has taken and subscribed the oath of allegiance and oath for the due execution of his office as set out in the First Schedule.

First Schedule

Exercise of President's functions

109.(1) In the exercise of his functions under this Constitution or any other law, the President shall act in his own deliberate judgement, except in cases where by this Constitution or any other law he is required to act-

(a) after consultation with any person or authority; or

(b) in accordance with the advice of any person or authority.

(2) Where by this Constitution the President is required to act in accordance with the advice of, or after consultation with, any person or authority, the question whether he has in any case so acted shall not be enquired into in any court.

President to inform Parliament concerning matters of Government

110. The President shall keep the Parliament fully informed concerning the general conduct of the Government by addressing a joint sitting of the House of Representatives and the Senate not less than two times per year and a period of six months shall not elapse between one address and the other in any one year.

Leader of the Opposition

111.(1) There shall be an office of Leader of the Opposition and, subject to subsection (2), appointments to that office shall be made by the Speaker.

(2) A Leader of the Opposition shall be elected by a majority vote of the members of the House of Representatives who do not support the Government.

(3) The candidate who-

- (a) is unopposed; or
- (b) obtains the greatest number of the votes cast, for the office of Leader of the Opposition shall be declared by the Speaker elected.

(4) Where the votes cast for two or more candidates are equally divided, fresh election for the office of Leader of the Opposition shall be held as soon as practicable.

(5) The office of Leader of the Opposition shall become vacant where the Leader of the Opposition -

- (a) resigns his office by writing signed by him and addressed to the Speaker or, if the office of the Speaker is vacant, to the Clerk of the House;
- (b) ceases to be a member of the House of Representatives for any reason other than a dissolution of Parliament;
- (c) is not a member of the House of Representatives when the House of Representatives first meets after a dissolution of Parliament;
- (d) by virtue of section 73(3), is required to cease to exercise his functions as a member of the House of Representatives;

- (e) dies; or
- (f) is required to cease to exercise his functions when his appointment as the Leader of the Opposition is revoked under subsection (6).

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Leader of the Opposition shall vacate his office where the members of the House of Representatives who do not support the Government pass a resolution, supported by the votes of a majority of all those members, declaring that it has no confidence in the Leader of the Opposition.

(7) Where a resolution is passed under subsection (1), the Speaker shall immediately revoke the appointment of the Leader of the Opposition, but, without prejudice to the revocation, the Leader of the Opposition shall continue to hold office until a new Leader of the Opposition is elected and assumes office.

(8) Nothing in subsections (6) and (7) shall apply while Parliament is dissolved.

(9) Where the office of Leader of the Opposition is vacant for any reason any provision in this Constitution requiring consultation with the Leader of the Opposition shall, in so far as it requires such consultation, be of no effect.

Permanent Secretaries

112.(1) Subject to section 106(3), a department of Government shall be under the supervision of a Permanent Secretary whose office shall be a public office.

- (2) For the purpose of this section-
 - (a) two or more departments of Government may be placed under the supervision of one Permanent Secretary; or

- (b) two or more Permanent Secretaries may supervise any department of Government assigned to a Minister.

Constitution of offices, etc.

113. Subject to this Constitution and any other law, the President may constitute offices for Trinidad and Tobago, make appointments to any such office and terminate any such appointment.

Powers of pardon, etc

114.(1) The President may grant to any person a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions, in respect of any offence that he may have committed.

(2) The power of the President under subsection (1) may be exercised by him either before or after the person is charged with any offence and before he is convicted of an offence.

(3) The President may-

- (a) grant to any person convicted of any offence against the law of Trinidad and Tobago a pardon, either free or subject to lawful conditions;
- (b) grant to any person a respite, either indefinite or for a specified period, from the execution of any punishment imposed on that person for such an offence;
- (c) substitute a less severe form of punishment for that imposed by any sentence for such an offence; or
- (d) remit the whole or any part of any sentence passed for such an offence or any penalty or forfeiture otherwise due to the State on account of such an offence.

(4) The power of the President under subsection (3) may be exercised by him after consultation with the Advisory Committee on the Power of Pardon.

Advisory Committee on the Power of Pardon

115. There shall be an Advisory Committee on the Power of Pardon which shall consist of-

- (a) the Attorney General, who shall be the Chairman;
- (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions;
- (c) one Minister designated by the President; and
- (d) four other members appointed by the President, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition.

Functions of
Advisory Committee

116.(1) Where an offender has been sentenced to death by any court for an offence against the law of Trinidad and Tobago, the Attorney General shall obtain a written report of the case from the trial judge, and shall submit the same, together with such other information derived from the record of the case or elsewhere as the Attorney General may require, to the Advisory Committee for its consideration.

(2) The President shall consult with the Chairman of the Advisory Committee before making a decision in any case falling within section 114.

(3) The President is not obliged in any case to act in accordance with the advice of the Advisory Committee.

(4) The Advisory Committee may regulate its own procedure.

CHAPTER 6

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS AND THE OMBUDSMAN

PART I

Director of Public Prosecutions

Appointment, tenure and functions

117.(1) This section shall have effect with respect to the conduct of prosecutions.

(2) There shall be a Director of Public Prosecutions for Trinidad and Tobago whose office shall be a public office.

(3) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall discharge his functions under this Constitution and any other law under the general superintendence of the Attorney General.

(4) Subject to subsection (3), the Director of Public Prosecutions shall discharge his functions under this Constitution and any other law independent of the control and direction of any other person or authority and shall be free and independent from political, executive and any other form of interference.

(5) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall have power in any case in which he considers it proper to do so-

- (a) to institute and undertake criminal proceedings against any person before any court in respect of any offence against the law of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) to take over and continue any such criminal proceedings that may have been instituted by any other person or authority;

(c) to discontinue at any stage before judgment is delivered any such criminal proceedings instituted or undertaken by himself or any other person or authority.

(6) The powers conferred upon the Director of Public Prosecutions by subsection (5)(b) and (c) shall be vested in him to the exclusion of the person or authority who instituted or undertook the criminal proceedings, except that a person or authority that has instituted criminal proceedings may withdraw them at any stage before the person against whom the proceedings have been instituted has been charged before the court.

(7) For the purpose of this section, a reference to criminal proceedings includes an appeal from the determination of any court in criminal proceedings or a case stated or a question of law reserved in respect of those proceedings.

(8) The functions of the Director of Public Prosecutions under subsection (5) may be exercised by him in person or through other persons acting under and in accordance with his general or special instructions.

PART II

Ombudsman

Appointment and conditions of office

118.(1) There shall be an Ombudsman for Trinidad and Tobago who shall be an officer of Parliament and who shall not hold any other office of emolument whether in the public service or otherwise nor engage in any occupation for reward other than the duties of his office.

(2) The Ombudsman shall be appointed by the President after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition, President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(3) The Ombudsman shall hold office for a term not exceeding five years and is eligible for re-appointment.

(4) Subject to subsection (3), the Ombudsman shall hold office in accordance with section 184.

(5) Before entering upon the duties of his office, the Ombudsman shall take and subscribe the oath of office set out in the First Schedule before the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

First Schedule

Staff of Ombudsman

119.(1) The Ombudsman shall be provided with adequate staff and resources for the efficient and expeditious discharge of his functions.

(2) The staff of the Ombudsman shall be public officers appointed in accordance with section 162(8).

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the Ombudsman may employ such members of staff as he requires for the performance of his functions on such terms and conditions as are agreed upon between the employee and the Ombudsman.

Functions of Ombudsman

120.(1) Subject to this section and to sections 121 and 122, the principal function of the Ombudsman shall be to investigate any decision or recommendation made, including any advice given or recommendation made to a Minister, or any act done or omitted by any department of Government or any other authority to which this section applies, or by officers or members of such a department or authority, being action taken in exercise of the administrative functions of that department or authority.

(2) The Ombudsman may investigate any such matter in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) where a complaint is duly made to the Ombudsman by any person alleging that the complainant has sustained an injustice as a result of a fault in administration;
- (b) where a member of the House of Representatives requests the Ombudsman to investigate the matter on the ground that a person or body of persons specified in the request has or may have sustained such injustice;
- (c) in any other circumstances in which the Ombudsman considers that he ought to investigate the matter on the ground that some person or body of persons has or may have sustained such injustice.

(3) The authorities, other than departments of Government, to which this section applies are-

- (a) local authorities or other bodies established for purpose of the public service or of local Government;
- (b) authorities or bodies the majority of whose members are appointed by the President or by a Minister or whose revenues consist wholly or mainly of moneys provided out of public funds;
- (c) any authority empowered to determine the person with whom any contract shall be entered into by or on behalf of Government;
- (d) such other authorities as may be prescribed.

(4) Where a public officer makes a written complaint to a Service Commission for a review of the Service Commission's decision and the Commission fails to act on the request within a reasonable time, the Ombudsman may investigate the inaction.

Restrictions on matters for investigations

121.(1) In investigating any matter leading to, resulting from or connected with the decision of a Minister, the Ombudsman shall not inquire into or question the policy of the Minister in accordance with which the decision was made.

(2) The Ombudsman shall have power to investigate complaints of administrative injustice under section 120 notwithstanding that such complaints raise questions as to the integrity or corruption of the public service or any department or office of the public service, and may investigate any conditions resulting from, or calculated to facilitate or encourage corruption in the public service, but he shall not undertake any investigation into specific charges of corruption against any person.

(3) Where in the course of an investigation it appears to the Ombudsman that there is evidence of any corrupt act by any public officer or by any person in connection with the public service, he shall report the matter to the appropriate authority with his recommendation as to any further investigation he may consider proper.

- (4) The Ombudsman shall not investigate-
- (a) any action in respect of which the complainant has or had -
 - (i) a remedy by way of proceedings in a court; or
 - (ii) a right of appeal, reference or review to or before an independent and impartial tribunal other than a court; or

Third Schedule

- (b) any such action or action taken with respect to any matter set out in the Third Schedule.
- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the Ombudsman-
 - (a) may investigate a matter notwithstanding that the complainant has or had a remedy by way of proceedings in a court if satisfied that in the particular circumstances it is not reasonable to expect him to take or to have taken such proceedings;
 - (b) is not in any case precluded from investigating any matter by reason only that it is open to the complainant to apply to the High Court for redress under section 34.

Discretion of Ombudsman

122. In determining whether to initiate, continue or discontinue an investigation, the Ombudsman shall, subject to sections 120 and 121, act in his discretion and, in particular and without prejudice to the generality of this discretion, the Ombudsman may refuse to initiate or may discontinue an investigation where it appears to him that-

- (a) a complaint relates to action of which the complainant has knowledge for more than twelve months before the complaint was received by the Ombudsman;
- (b) the subject matter of the complaint is trivial;
- (c) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious or is not made in good faith; or

- (d) the complainant does not have a sufficient interest in the subject matter of the complaint.

Report on investigation

123.(1) Where a complaint or request for an investigation is duly made and the Ombudsman decides not to investigate the matter or where he decides to discontinue an investigation of the matter, he shall inform the person who made the complaint or request of the reasons for his decision.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), upon the completion of an investigation the Ombudsman shall inform the department of Government or the authority concerned of the results of the investigation and if he is of the opinion that any person has sustained an injustice in consequence of a fault in administration, he shall inform the department of Government or the authority of the reasons for his opinions and make such recommendations as he thinks fit.

(3) The Ombudsman may in his original recommendations under subsection (2), or at any later stage if he thinks fit, specify the time within which the injustice should be remedied.

(4) Where the investigation is undertaken as a result of a complaint or request, the Ombudsman shall inform the person who made the complaint or request of his findings.

(5) Where the matter is in the opinion of the Ombudsman of sufficient public importance or where the Ombudsman has made a recommendation under subsection (2) and within the time specified by him under subsection (3) no sufficient action has been taken to remedy the injustice, then, subject to such provision as may be made by Parliament, the Ombudsman shall lay a special report on the case before Parliament.

(6) Where the Ombudsman decides to lay a special report before Parliament, such report shall be presented by him or a representative appointed by him before a Joint Select Committee of Parliament.

(7) The Joint Select Committee of Parliament, after investigation of the special report, shall recommend to Parliament for its urgent consideration the steps it considers should be taken to address the issues raised in the report.

(8) The Ombudsman shall make bi-annual reports on the performance of his functions to Parliament which shall include statistics in such form and in such detail, as may be prescribed, of the complaints received by him and the results of his investigations.

Power to request reasons

124.(1) Where a complaint has been made against a department of Government or an authority referred to in section 120(3), the Ombudsman shall have the power to request from the Permanent Secretary reasons for the omission or decision that has given rise to the complaint.

(2) Where a request has been made under subsection (1), the Permanent Secretary shall forward those reasons to the Ombudsman within twenty-one days from the date of receipt of the request.

Power to obtain evidence

125.(1) The Ombudsman shall have the powers of the High Court to summon witnesses to appear before him and to compel them to give evidence on oath and to produce documents relevant to the proceedings before him and all persons giving evidence at those proceedings shall have the same duties and liabilities and enjoy the same privileges as in the High Court.

(2) The Ombudsman shall have power to enter and inspect the premises of a department of Government or of an authority referred to in section 120(3), to call for, examine and where necessary retain any document kept on such premises and there to carry out any investigation in pursuance of his functions.

(3) Subject to section 126(3), where a complaint has been made in relation to information contained in any Cabinet documents or confidential income tax documents, the Ombudsman is entitled to examine those documents to determine the nature of any decision made in relation to the complaint.

Prescribed matters concerning Ombudsman

126.(1) Subject to subsection (2), Parliament may make provision-

- (a) for regulating the procedure for the making of complaints and requests to the Ombudsman and for the exercise of the functions of the Ombudsman;
- (b) for conferring such powers on the Ombudsman and imposing such duties on persons concerned as are necessary to facilitate the Ombudsman in the performance of his functions; and
- (c) generally for giving effect to this Part.

(2) The Ombudsman may not be empowered to summon a Minister to appear before him or to compel a Minister to answer any questions relating to any matter under investigation by the Ombudsman.

(3) The Ombudsman may not be empowered to summon any witness to produce any Cabinet papers or to give any confidential income tax information.

(4) No complainant may be required to pay any fee in respect of his complaint or request or for any investigation to be made by the Ombudsman.

(5) No proceedings, civil or criminal, may lie against the Ombudsman, or against any person holding an office or appointment under him for anything he may do, report or say in the course of the exercise or intended exercise of the functions of the Ombudsman under this Constitution, unless it is shown that he acted in bad faith.

(6) The Ombudsman, and any person holding office or appointment under him, may not be called to give evidence in any court, or in any proceedings of a judicial nature, in respect of anything coming to his knowledge in the exercise of his functions.

(7) Anything said or any information supplied or any document, paper, or thing produced by any person in the course of any enquiry by or proceedings before an Ombudsman under this Constitution is privileged in the same manner as if the enquiry or proceedings were proceedings in a court.

(8) No proceeding of the Ombudsman may be held bad for want of form, and, except on the ground of lack of jurisdiction, no proceeding or decision of an Ombudsman is liable to be challenged, reviewed, quashed or called in question in any court.

CHAPTER 7

THE JUDICATURE

PART I

The Supreme Court

Establishment of Supreme Court

127. There shall be a Supreme Court of Judicature for Trinidad and Tobago consisting of a High Court of Justice (hereinafter referred to as "the High Court") and a Court of Appeal with such jurisdiction and powers as are conferred on those Courts respectively by this Constitution or any other law.

Constitution of High Court

128.(1) The judges of the High Court shall be the Chief Justice who shall be ex officio a Judge of that Court, and such number of Puisne Judges as may be prescribed.

(2) The High Court shall be a superior court of record and, save as otherwise provided by Parliament, shall have all the powers of such a court, including all such powers as are vested in the Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago immediately before the commencement of this Constitution.

Transfer of High Court jurisdiction

129. Subject to this Constitution, Parliament may confer on any court any part of the jurisdiction of and any powers conferred on the High Court by this Constitution or any other law.

Concurrent jurisdiction

130.(1) The jurisdiction and powers of a Justice of Appeal may be exercised by such Puisne Judge as may be designated by the Chief Justice to sit as an additional Justice of Appeal at sittings of the Court of Appeal.

(2) The jurisdiction and powers of a Puisne Judge may be exercised by such Justice of Appeal as may be designated by the Chief Justice to sit as an additional Puisne Judge.

The Court of Appeal

Constitution of Court of Appeal

131.(1) The Judges of the Court of Appeal shall be the Chief Justice who shall be the President of the Court of Appeal and such number of Justices of Appeal as may be prescribed.

(2) The Court of Appeal shall be a superior court of record and, save as otherwise provided by Parliament, shall have all the powers of such a court, including all such powers as are vested in the Court of Appeal immediately before the commencement of this Constitution.

Appointment of
Chief Justice

132.(1) The President shall, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition and the President of the Law Association, nominate a person to be appointed as the Chief Justice.

(2) The President shall issue a Notification in respect of the person nominated under subsection (1) and the Notification shall be subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

(3) The President shall make the appointment under this section only after Parliament has not negated the Notification.

(4) Where the Notification has been negated by Parliament, the President shall again comply with the process set out in this section.

Office of Chief Justice vacant

133. Where the office of Chief Justice is vacant due to death, resignation, removal under section 147 or for any other reason, the functions of the office of the Chief Justice shall be performed by a Judge appointed by the President in accordance with section 134, and that Judge shall hold that office until a person has been appointed in accordance with section 132 and has assumed the office of the Chief Justice.

Acting appointment as Chief Justice

134. Where the Chief Justice is for any reason unable to perform the functions of his office, until the Chief Justice has resumed those functions, those functions shall be performed by a Judge appointed by the President, after consultation with the Chief Justice (where possible), the Leader of the Opposition and the President of the Law Association.

Appointment of Judges

Appointment of Judges

135.(1) The Judges, other than the Chief Justice, shall be appointed by the President, acting in accordance with the advice of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission.

(2) Where-

- (a) the office of any such Judge is vacant;
- (b) a Judge is for any reason unable to perform the functions of his office;
- (c) a Justice of Appeal is acting as Chief Justice or a Puisne Judge is acting as a Justice of Appeal; or
- (d) the Chief Justice advises the President that the state of business of the Court of Appeal or the High Court so requires, the President, acting in accordance with the advice of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission-

- (i) may appoint a person to act in the office of Justice of Appeal or Puisne

Judge, as the case may require;

- (ii) may, notwithstanding section 184, appoint a person who has held office as a Judge and who has attained the age of sixty-five to be temporarily a Puisne Judge for fixed periods of not more than two years.

(3) The appointment of any person under subsection (2) to act in the office of Justice of Appeal or Puisne Judge shall continue to have effect until it is revoked by the President, acting in accordance with the advice of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission.

Qualifications of Judges

136. A person shall not be appointed as a Judge or to act as a Judge unless he has such qualifications for appointment as may be prescribed.

Tenure of office

137.(1) Subject to section 135(3), a Judge shall hold office in accordance with section 147 and 184.

(2) No office of Judge shall be abolished while there is a substantive holder of that office.

(3) A Judge shall vacate his office on attaining the age of sixty-five years or such other age as may be prescribed.

(4) Notwithstanding that he has attained the age at which he is required by subsection (3) to vacate his office, a Judge may, with the permission of the President, acting in accordance with the advice of the Chief Justice, continue in office for such period not exceeding one year, after attaining that age, as may be necessary to enable him to deliver judgment, or to do any other thing in relation to proceedings that were commenced before him before he attained that age.

Oath to be taken by Judges

138. A Judge shall not enter upon the duties of his office unless he has taken and subscribed the oath of allegiance and the oath for the due execution of his office set out in the First Schedule.

First Schedule

Administration of courts

139.(1) The Chief Justice shall be responsible for the general administration and business of the Supreme Court.

(2) The Chief Justice shall establish such Divisions of the Supreme Court as he considers necessary for the expeditious and efficient discharge of the functions of the Supreme Court, and to assign Judges to sit in such Divisions as he may consider appropriate, having regard to the qualification and experience of the Judges concerned.

(3) The Supreme Court shall be administratively autonomous and shall be funded by a direct charge on the Consolidated Fund.

(4) The Chief Justice shall ensure that the Supreme Court is operated in accordance with the principles of sound financial and administrative management.

Appeals on constitutional questions and fundamental rights, etc.

140. An appeal to the Court of Appeal shall be as of right from decisions of the High Court in the following, among other, cases:

- (a) any order or decision in any civil or criminal proceedings on questions as to the interpretation of this Constitution;
- (b) any order or decision given in exercise of the jurisdiction conferred on the High Court by section 34;
- (c) any order or decision of a court in the exercise of its jurisdiction to punish for contempt of court, including criminal contempt.

PART II

Appeals to the Caribbean Court of Justice

Interpretation of this Part

141. For the purpose of this Part, “Agreement” means the Agreement Establishing the Caribbean Court of Justice, signed at Bridgetown, Barbados, on 14th February, 2001, to which Trinidad and Tobago is a party.

Jurisdiction of the Caribbean Court of Justice

142.(1) The Caribbean Court of Justice shall be a superior court of record and shall have appellate jurisdiction conferred on it by this Constitution and any other law in accordance with Part III of the Agreement.

(2) A decision of the Caribbean Court of Justice shall be final.

Appeals from Court of Appeal to Caribbean Court of Justice

143.(1) An appeal shall lie from decisions of the Court of Appeal to the Caribbean Court of Justice as of right in the following cases:

- (a) final decisions in civil proceedings where the matter in dispute on the appeal to the Caribbean Court of Justice is of the value of the equivalent in Trinidad and Tobago dollars of twenty-five thousand dollars Eastern Caribbean currency or upwards or where the appeal involves directly or indirectly a claim to or question respecting property or a right of the value of the equivalent in Trinidad and Tobago dollars of twenty-five thousand dollars Eastern

Chap. 4:01

Act No. 21 of 1986

Caribbean currency or upwards;

- (b) final decisions in proceedings for dissolution or nullity of marriage;
- (c) final decisions in any civil, criminal or other proceedings which involve a question as to the interpretation of this Constitution;
- (d) except in cases falling under section 140(d), any case referred to in that section;
- (e) final decisions in disciplinary matters under section 81(3) to (5) of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, and under the Legal Profession Act, 1986; and
- (f) such other cases as may be prescribed.

(2) An appeal shall lie from decisions of the Court of Appeal to the Caribbean Court of Justice with the leave of the Court of Appeal in the following cases:

- (a) decisions in any civil proceedings, where in the opinion of the Court of Appeal the question involved in the appeal is one that, by reason of its great general or public importance or otherwise, ought to be submitted to the Caribbean Court of Justice; and
- (b) such other cases as may be prescribed.

(3) An appeal shall lie to the Caribbean Court of Justice with the special leave of the Caribbean Court of Justice from decisions of the Court of Appeal in any civil or criminal matter in any case in which, immediately before the date on which Trinidad and Tobago became a Republic, an appeal could have been brought with the special leave of Her Majesty to Her Majesty in Council from such decisions.

(4) Subsection (1), (2) and (3) are subject to sections 58(2) and 77(4).

(5) Subject to this section, provision may be made by or under any Act regulating the procedure to be adopted by the Court of Appeal with respect to any appeal to the Caribbean Court of Justice under this section or by parties to any such appeal.

(6) Any decision given by the Caribbean Court of Justice in any appeal under this section shall be enforced in like manner as if it were a decision of the Court of Appeal.

(7) Subject to subsection (6), the Caribbean Court of Justice shall, in relation to any appeal to it under this section in any case, have all the jurisdiction and powers possessed in relation to that case by the Court of Appeal.

Constitution, tenure,
appointment, etc

144. The constitution of the Caribbean Court of Justice, the tenure, appointment, determination of terms and conditions of service and the power to remove and exercise disciplinary control of the Judges of the Caribbean Court of Justice shall be as provided for in the Agreement.

PART III

Judicial and Legal Service Commission

Judicial and Legal Service
Commission

145.(1) There shall be a Judicial and Legal Service Commission for Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) The members of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission shall be-

- (a) the Chief Justice, who shall be Chairman;
and
- (b) such other members (hereinafter called "the appointed members") as may be appointed in accordance with subsection (3).

(3) The appointed members shall be appointed by the President after consultation with the Chief Justice, the Leader of the Opposition and the President of the Law Association as follows:

- (a) four from among persons who hold or have held office as a judge of a court having unlimited jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters in some part of the Commonwealth or a court having jurisdiction in appeal from any such court; and
- (b) four attorneys-at-law, two of whom shall be Senior Counsel.

(4) Notwithstanding section 176(2), any five members of the Commission shall constitute a quorum.

(5) Subject to section 172, an appointed member shall hold office in accordance with section 184(4) to (10).

Appointment of judicial and legal officers

146.(1) Subject to this section, the Judicial and Legal Service Commission shall have, in relation to offices to which this section applies, the power to appoint persons to hold or act in such offices, and the power to -

- (a) make appointments on promotion of;
- (b) confirm appointments of;
- (c) transfer;
- (d) remove;
- (e) exercise disciplinary control over; and
- (f) enforce standards of conduct on,

such persons.

(2) Before the Judicial and Legal Service

Commission makes an appointment to the offices of Solicitor General, Chief Parliamentary Counsel, Director of Public Prosecutions, Registrar General or Chief State Solicitor it shall consult with the President.

(3) A person shall not be appointed to an office mentioned in subsection (2) if the President signifies to the Judicial and Legal Service Commission his objection to the appointment of that person to that office.

(4) This section applies to such public offices as may be prescribed, for appointment to which persons are required to possess legal qualifications.

Removal from office of Judge

147.(1) A Judge may be removed from office only for inability to perform the functions of his office, (whether arising from infirmity of mind or body or any other cause), or for misbehaviour, and shall not be so removed except in accordance with this section.

(2) A Judge shall be removed from office by the President where the question of removal of that Judge has been referred by the tribunal, appointed under subsection (5)(a), to the Caribbean Court of Justice and the Caribbean Court of Justice has advised the President that the Judge ought to be removed from office for such inability or for misbehaviour.

(3) Where the President, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition and the President of the Law Association, is of the opinion that the question of the removal of the Chief Justice from office under this section ought to be investigated, the President shall comply with the procedure set out in subsection (5).

(4) Where the Judicial and Legal Service Commission represents to the President that the question of removing any other Judge from office under this section ought to be investigated, the President shall comply with the procedure set out in subsection (5).

(5) The procedure for the removal of a Judge shall be as follows:

- (a) the President shall appoint a tribunal, which shall consist of a chairman and not less than two other members, selected by the President -
 - (i) after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition and the President of the Law Association, in the case of the Chief Justice; or
 - (ii) after consultation with the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, in the case of any other Judge, from among persons who hold or have held office as a judge of a court having unlimited jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters in some part of the Commonwealth or a court having jurisdiction in appeals from any such court;
- (b) the tribunal shall enquire into the matter and where it is of the opinion that the question of removal of that Judge from office should be referred to the Caribbean Court of Justice, the tribunal shall so refer the question; and
- (c) where the tribunal does not so refer the question under paragraph (b), it shall inform the President accordingly.

(6) Where the question of removing a Judge from office has been referred to a tribunal under subsection (5), the President, after consultation with -

- (a) the Leader of the Opposition and the President of the Law Association, in the case of the Chief Justice; or
- (b) the Chief Justice, in the case of any other Judge, may suspend the Chief Justice or the Judge, as the case may be, from performing the functions of his office.

(7) A suspension under subsection (6) may at any time be revoked by the President, after consultation with-

- (a) the Leader of the Opposition and the President of the Law Association, in the case of the Chief Justice; or
- (b) the Chief Justice, in the case of any other Judge.

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (7), a suspension under subsection (6) shall cease to have effect-

- (a) where the tribunal informs the President that it has not referred the question of the removal of the Judge from office to the Caribbean Court of Justice; or
- (b) where the Caribbean Court of Justice advises the President that the Judges ought not to be removed from office.

CHAPTER 8

FINANCE

Establishment of Consolidated
Fund

148.(1) All revenues or other moneys raised or received by Trinidad and Tobago, not being revenues or other moneys payable under this Constitution or any other law into some other public fund established for a specific purpose shall, unless Parliament otherwise provides, be paid into and form one Consolidated Fund.

(2) No moneys shall be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund except to meet expenditure that is charged upon the Fund by this Constitution or any Act or where the issue of those moneys has been authorised by an Appropriation Act or an Act passed in pursuance of section 150 or in accordance with any other law.

(3) No moneys shall be withdrawn from any public fund other than the Consolidated Fund unless the issue of those moneys has been authorised by an Act.

(4) No moneys shall be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund or any other public fund except in the manner prescribed.

Authorisation of expenditure from Consolidated
Fund

149.(1) The Minister responsible for finance shall cause to be prepared and laid before the House of Representatives before or not later than thirty days after the commencement of each financial year estimates of the revenues and expenditure of Trinidad and Tobago for that year.

(2) The heads of expenditure contained in the estimates, other than expenditure charged upon the Consolidated Fund by this Constitution or any Act shall be included in a Bill, to be known as an Appropriation Bill, providing for the issue from the Consolidated Fund of the sums necessary to meet that expenditure and the appropriation of those sums for the purposes specified therein.

(3) If in respect of any financial year it is found-

(a) that the amount appropriated by the Appropriation Act for any purpose is insufficient or that a need has arisen for expenditure for a purpose for which no amount has been appropriated by the Act; or

- (b) that any moneys have been expended for any purpose in excess of the amount appropriated for the purpose by the Appropriation Act or for a purpose for which no amount has been appropriated by the Act, a supplementary estimate showing the sums required or spent shall be laid before the House of Representatives and the heads of any such expenditure shall be included in a Supplementary Appropriation Bill.

Authorisation of expenditure in advance of appropriation

150. Parliament may make provision under which, if the Appropriation Act in respect of any financial year has not come into operation by the beginning of that financial year, the Minister responsible for finance may authorise the withdrawal of moneys from the Consolidated Fund for the purpose of meeting expenditure necessary to carry on the services of the Government until the expiration of thirty days from the beginning of that financial year or the coming into operation of the Act, whichever is the earlier.

Contingencies Fund

151.(1) Parliament may provide for the establishment of a Contingencies Fund and for authorising the Minister responsible for finance, if he is satisfied that there has arisen an urgent and unforeseen need for expenditure for which no other provision exists, to make advances from the Fund to meet that need.

(2) Where any advance is made in accordance with subsection (1) a supplementary estimate shall be presented and a Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall be introduced as soon as possible for the purpose of replacing the amount so advanced.

Office and functions of
Auditor General

152.(1) There shall be an Auditor General for Trinidad and Tobago, whose office shall be a public office.

(2) The public accounts of Trinidad and Tobago and of all officers, courts and authorities of Trinidad and Tobago shall be audited and reported on annually by the Auditor General, and for that purpose the Auditor General or any person authorised by him in that behalf shall have access to all books, records, returns and other documents relating to those accounts.

(3) The Auditor General is hereby empowered to carry out audits of the accounts, balance sheets and other financial statements of all enterprises that are owned or controlled by or on behalf of the State.

(4) The Auditor General shall submit his reports annually to the Speaker, the President of the Senate and the Minister of Finance.

(5) The President of the Senate and the Speaker shall cause the report to be laid before the Senate and the House of Representatives, respectively, at the next sitting of the Senate and the House of Representatives after the receipt thereof, respectively.

(6) In the exercise of his functions under this Constitution the Auditor General shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.

Appointment of Auditor General

153.(1) Subject to this section, the Auditor General shall be appointed by the President and hold office in accordance with section 184.

(2) The President shall, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition, nominate a person to be appointed as the Auditor General.

(3) The President shall issue a Notification in respect of the person nominated under subsection (2) and the Notification shall be subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

(4) The President shall make the appointment under this section only after Parliament has not negated the Notification.

(5) Where the Notification has been negated by Parliament, the President shall again comply with the process set out in this section.

(6) Nothing done by the Auditor General shall be invalid by reason only that he has attained the age at which he is required under section 184 to vacate his office.

Oath by Auditor General

First Schedule

154. Before entering upon the duties of his office the Auditor General shall take and subscribe the oath of office set out in the First Schedule before the President or a person appointed by the President for the purpose.

Staff

155.(1) The Auditor General shall be provided with adequate staff and resources for the efficient and expeditious discharge of his functions.

(2) The staff of the Auditor General shall be public officers appointed in accordance with section 162(8).

Office of Auditor General vacant

156. Where the office of Auditor General is vacant due to death, resignation, removal from office or for any other reason, the functions of the office of the Auditor General shall be performed by a person appointed by the President in accordance with section 157, and that person shall hold that office until a person has been appointed in accordance with section 153 and has assumed the office of the Auditor General.

Acting appointment of Auditor General

157. Where the Auditor General is for any reason unable to perform the functions of his office, until the Auditor General has resumed those functions, those functions shall be performed by a person appointed by the President, after consultation with the Auditor General, where possible, and the Leader of the Opposition.

Public debt

158.(1) The public debt of Trinidad and Tobago shall be secured on the revenues and assets of Trinidad and Tobago.

(2) In this section reference to the public debt of Trinidad and Tobago include reference to the interest on that debt, sinking fund payment in respect of that debt, and the cost, charge and expense incidental to the management of that debt.

Public Accounts Committee

159.(1) There shall be a Public Accounts Committee which shall consist of not less than six nor more than ten members.

(2) The Chairman of the Public Accounts Committee shall be a member of the Opposition in the House, if any, and if willing to act.

(3) The Chairman and other members may comprise an equal number of members of the House of Representatives and the Senate as the House of Representatives may determine.

(4) Where the members of the Opposition in the House of Representatives are unwilling to act as Chairman of the Public Accounts Committee, a member of the Opposition in the Senate shall be appointed and where the members of the Opposition in the Senate are unwilling so to act, then the Chairman shall be elected by and from among the members of the Senate.

(5) The Public Accounts Committee shall consider and report to the House of Representatives on-

- (a) appropriation accounts of moneys expended out of sums granted by Parliament to meet the public expenditure of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) such other accounts as may be referred to the Committee by the House of Representatives or as are authorised or required to be considered by the committee under any other enactment; and
- (c) the report of the Auditor General on any such accounts.

Public Accounts (Enterprises)
Committee

160.(1) There shall be a Public Accounts (Enterprises) Committee which shall consist of not less than six nor more than ten members.

(2) The Chairman of the Public Accounts (Enterprises) Committee shall be a Senator, if willing to act, appointed in accordance with the advice of the Leader of the Opposition and the other members such members of the House of Representatives and Senators as the House of Representatives may determine.

(3) Where the members of the Opposition in the Senate are unwilling to act as Chairman of the Public Accounts (Enterprises) Committee, a member of the Opposition in the House of Representatives shall be appointed and where the members of the Opposition in the House of Representatives are unwilling so to act, then the Chairman shall be elected by and from among all the members of the Senate.

(4) The Public Accounts (Enterprises) Committee shall consider and report to the House of Representatives on-

- (a) the audited accounts, balance sheets and other financial statements of all enterprises that are owned or controlled by or on behalf of the State; and
- (b) the Auditor General's report on any such accounts, balance sheets and other financial statements.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (4) and section 152(3), an enterprise shall be taken to be controlled by the State if the Government or any body controlled by the Government-

- (a) exercises or is entitled to exercise control directly or indirectly over the affairs of the enterprise;
- (b) is entitled to appoint a majority of the directors of the Board of Directors of the enterprise; or
- (c) holds at least fifty per cent of the ordinary share capital of the enterprise, as the case may be.

CHAPTER 9
APPOINTMENTS TO, AND TENURE OF, OFFICES

PART I

SERVICE COMMISSIONS, ETC

Public Service Commission

Public Service Commission

161.(1) There shall be a Public Service Commission for Trinidad and Tobago which shall consist of a Chairman, a Deputy Chairman and five other members.

(2) The members of the Public Service Commission shall be appointed by the President in accordance with this section.

(3) The President shall, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition, nominate persons to be appointed as members of the Public Service Commission.

(4) The President shall issue a Notification in respect of each person nominated for appointment under subsection (3) and the Notification shall be subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

(5) The President shall make an appointment under this section only after Parliament has not negated the Notification in respect of the relevant person.

(6) Where the Notification has been negated by Parliament, the President shall again comply with the process set out in this section.

(7) The President shall appoint a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman of the Public Service Commission from among its members.

(8) The members of the Public Service Commission shall hold office in accordance with sections 172, 173 and 184.

Appointments, etc. of public
officers

162.(1) Subject to this Constitution, the Public Service Commission shall have, in relation to offices to which this section applies, the power to appoint persons to hold or act in such offices, and the power to -

- (a) make appointments on promotion of;
- (b) confirm appointments of;
- (c) transfer;
- (d) remove;
- (e) exercise disciplinary control over; and
- (f) enforce standards of conduct on,

such persons.

(2) The Public Service Commission shall not remove, or inflict any punishment on a public officer on the grounds of any act done or omitted to be done by that officer in the exercise of a judicial function conferred upon him unless the Judicial and Legal Service Commission concurs therein.

(3) Before the Public Service Commission makes any appointment to an office to which this subsection applies it shall consult the President.

(4) A person shall not be appointed to an office to which subsection (3) applies if the President signifies to the Public Service Commission his objection to the appointment of that person to that office.

(5) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), subsection (3) applies to the offices of Permanent Secretary, Chief Technical Officer, Director of Personnel Administration, to a head of a department of Government, to the chief professional adviser in a Ministry of Government and to the office of deputy to any of these offices.

(6) Power to make appointments or transfer to the following offices shall vest in the President:

- (a) any office of Permanent Secretary from one such office to another such office carrying the same salary;
- (b) any office the holder of which is required to reside outside Trinidad and Tobago for the proper discharge of his functions, and such offices in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as may from time to time be designated by the President after consultation with the Public Service Commission.

(7) This section applies to all public offices including in particular offices in the Civil Service, the Fire Service and the Prison Service, but this section does not apply to offices to which appointments are made by the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, the Police Service Commission or the Teaching Service Commission or offices to which appointments are to be made by the President.

(8) Before the Public Service Commission makes any appointment to or transfers a member of the staff of the Auditor General or Ombudsman it shall first consult with the Auditor General or Ombudsman, as the case may be.

(9) In subsection (7), "Civil Service", "Fire Service" and "Prison Service" means respectively the Civil Service established under the Civil Service Act, the Fire Service established under the Fire Service Act, and the Prison Service established under the Prison Service Act.

Chap. 23:01

Chap. 35:50

Chap. 13:02

Personnel Boards

163.(1) The Public Service Commission shall, within six months after the commencement of this Constitution, appoint such number of Personnel Boards as it considers necessary from among the persons mentioned in subsection

(2).

(2) A Personnel Board shall consist of a Chairman and four other members, who shall be appointed from among the following persons:

- (a) an attorney-at-law with not less than ten years standing;
- (b) a retired senior public officer, who attained Grade 60 or above;
- (c) a senior human resource person; and
- (d) two Permanent Secretaries.

(3) The members of a Personnel Board shall be appointed for a period of three years.

(4) A person shall not be appointed as a member of a Personnel Board if he is, and shall cease to be a member if he becomes, disqualified to be appointed as a member of a Service Commission.

(5) A member of a Personnel Board may be removed from office by the Public Service Commission for inability to discharge the functions of his office, whether arising from infirmity of mind or body or any other cause, or for misbehaviour.

Exercise of power by and procedure of Personnel Board

164.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the powers of the Public Service Commission under section 162(1), including the power to impose a penalty other than the power of removal, shall be exercised by a Personnel Board upon its appointment under section 163(1).

(2) A Personnel Board shall exercise powers in relation to the following Classes, set out in the Schedule to the Civil Service Regulations, 1967:

- (a) Administrative Class;

- (b) Technical Class;
- (c) Clerical Class;
- (d) Secretarial Class;
- (e) Manipulative Class.

(3) Where a Personnel Board is appointed by the Public Service Commission, the Public Service Commission shall cease to exercise the powers exercisable by the Personnel Board.

(4) Where in the exercise of its powers under this section, a Personnel Board is of the opinion that the appropriate penalty is removal, the Board shall refer the matter to the Public Service Commission, which shall deal with the matter and decide whether to remove the officer or impose a lesser penalty.

(5) The Public Service Commission may make regulations to regulate the procedure of the Personnel Boards.

Delegation

165. A Personnel Board may, subject to such conditions as it considers fit, delegate any of its functions to any of its members.

Appeals

166. Where a public officer is aggrieved by a decision of a Personnel Board in the exercise of its powers under section 164, he is entitled to file an appeal against that decision to the Public Service Commission.

Police Service Commission

Police Service Commission

167.(1) There shall be a Police Service Commission for Trinidad and Tobago which shall consist of a Chairman and four other members.

(2) The members of the Police Service Commission shall be appointed by the President in accordance with this section.

(3) The President shall, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition, nominate persons, who are qualified and experienced in the disciplines of law, finance, sociology or management, to be appointed as members of the Police Service Commission.

(4) The President shall issue a Notification in respect of each person nominated for appointment under subsection (3) and the Notification shall be subject to affirmative resolution of the House of Representatives.

(5) The President shall make an appointment under this section only after the House of Representatives has approved the Notification in respect of the relevant person.

(6) The President shall appoint a Chairman of the Police Service Commission from among its members.

(7) The members of the Police Service Commission shall hold office in accordance with sections 172, 173 and 184.

Powers of Police Service Commission

168.(1) Subject to this Constitution, the Police Service Commission shall have the power to appoint persons to hold or act in the offices of Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Police and the power to -

- (a) make appointments on promotion of;
- (b) confirm appointments of;
- (c) remove;
- (d) exercise disciplinary control over;
- (e) enforce standards of conduct on; and
- (f) monitor the efficiency and effectiveness of the discharge of the functions of, the Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Police, as the case may be.

(2) The Police Service Commission shall prepare an annual performance appraisal report in such form as may be specified by the Police Service Commission in respect and for the information of the Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of Police.

Act No. 7 of 2006

(3) The Police Service Commission shall nominate persons for appointment to the offices specified in subsection (1)(a), and section 22(1) of the Police Service Act, 2006 in accordance with the criteria and procedure prescribed by Order of the President , subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

(4) The Police Service Commission shall submit to the President a list of the names of the persons nominated for appointment to the offices of Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Police.

(5) The President shall issue a Notification in respect of each person nominated under subsection (4) and the Notification shall be subject to affirmative resolution of the House of Representatives.

(6) The Police Service Commission shall appoint the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner of Police only after the House of Representatives approves the Notification in respect of the relevant office.

(7) For the purpose of subsection (1)(f), the Commissioner of Police shall, every six months, report to the Police Service Commission on the management of the Police Service.

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (7), the Police Service Commission may, on its own initiative, request a special report from the Commissioner of Police at any time on any matter relating to the management of the Police Service, to which the Commissioner shall respond in a timely manner.

(9) The Police Service Commission may terminate the services of the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner of Police on any of the following grounds:

- (a) where the officer is absent from duty without leave for seven consecutive days, during which he has failed to notify the Police Service Commission of the cause of his absence, whether he holds a permanent, temporary, or contractual appointment;
- (b) breach of contract, where the officer is appointed on contract;
- (c) reported inefficiency based on his performance appraisal reports, after giving him an opportunity to be heard;

- (d) where the officer holds a permanent appointment—
 - (i) on dismissal in consequence of disciplinary proceedings;
 - (ii) on being retired on medical grounds;
 - (iii) on being retired in the public interest; or
 - (iv) on the abolition of office.

(10) The procedure for the termination of the services of the Commissioner or a Deputy Commissioner of Police shall be specified by the Police Service Commission in accordance with section 176.

(11) Notwithstanding section 179, no appeal shall lie to the Public Service Appeal Board in respect of a decision of the Police Service Commission under subsection (9).

Powers of Commissioner of Police

169.(1) Subject to section 168(1), the Commissioner of Police shall have the power to manage the Police Service and is required to ensure that the human, financial and material resources available to the Service are used in an efficient and effective manner.

(2) The Commissioner of Police shall have, in relation to the offices in the Police Service established under the Police Service Act, 2006, other than an office referred to in section 168(1), the power to appoint persons to hold or act in such offices, and the power to -

- (a) make appointments on promotion of;
- (b) confirm appointments of;
- (c) transfer;
- (d) remove;
- (e) exercise disciplinary control over; and
- (f) enforce standards of conduct on,

such persons.

(3) The functions of the Commissioner of Police under this section may be exercised by him in person or through any police officer of or above the rank of Superintendent acting under and in accordance with his general or special instructions.

(4) In the performance of his functions under this section the Commissioner of Police shall act in accordance with the Police Service Act, 2006 and the regulations made under that Act.

Teaching Service Commission

Teaching Service Commission

170.(1) There shall be a Teaching Service Commission for Trinidad and Tobago which shall consist of a Chairman, Deputy Chairman and five other members.

(2) The members of the Teaching Service Commission shall be appointed by the President in accordance with this section.

(3) The President shall, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition, nominate persons to be appointed as members of the Teaching Service Commission.

(4) The President shall issue a Notification in respect of each person nominated for appointment under subsection (3) and the Notification shall be subject to negative resolution of Parliament.

(5) The President shall make an appointment under this section only after Parliament has not negated the Notification in respect of the relevant person.

(6) Where the Notification has been negated by Parliament, the President shall again comply with the process set out in this section.

(7) The President shall appoint a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman of the Teaching Service Commission from among its members.

(8) The members of the Teaching Service Commission shall hold office in accordance with section 172, 173 and 184.

Appointment, etc. of teachers

Chap. 39:01

171. Subject to this Constitution, the Teaching Service Commission shall have, in relation to the public offices in the Teaching Service established under the Education Act, the power to appoint persons to hold or act in such offices, and the power to -

- (a) make appointments on promotion of;
- (b) confirm appointments of;
- (c) transfer;
- (d) remove;
- (e) exercise disciplinary control over; and
- (f) enforce standards of conduct on,

such persons.

General Provisions on Service Commissions

Qualification, tenure of office,
etc.

172.(1) A person who-

- (a) is a member of the Senate, House of Representatives, House of Assembly or a Local Government body; or
- (b) holds or is acting in any public office or has held any public office within the period of three years preceding his proposed appointment, is not qualified to hold the office of member of a Service Commission.

(2) A person who has held office or acted as a member of a Service Commission shall not, within a period of three years commencing with the date on which he last held or acted in such an office, be eligible for appointment to any public office.

(3) The office of a member of a Service Commission shall become vacant-

- (a) upon the expiration of five years from the date of his appointment or such shorter period, not being less than three years, as may be specified in his instrument of appointment; or

- (b) where he becomes a Senator, or where with his consent he is nominated for election to the House of Representatives or the House of Assembly.

(4) Before entering upon the duties of his office a member of a Service Commission shall take and subscribe the oath of office set out in the First Schedule before the President or a person appointed by the President for the purpose.

First Schedule

Grounds of removal of members of Service Commissions

173. Subject to section 184, a member of a Service Commission, other than the Chairman of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, may be removed from office if the member-

- (a) fails to attend four consecutive meetings without reasonable cause;
- (b) is convicted of a criminal offence by any court, which is punishable by imprisonment for six or more months with or without a fine;
- (c) becomes infirm in mind or body;
- (d) fails to perform his duties in a responsible or timely manner;
- (e) fails to absent himself from meetings of the Service Commission where there is as a conflict of interest;
- (f) demonstrates a lack of competence to perform his duties;
- (g) misbehaves in office;
- (h) is unable to discharge the functions of his office for any other cause.

Delegation of functions

174.(1) A Service Commission may, with the approval of the President and subject to such conditions as it may think fit, delegate any of its functions under this Part other than any power conferred on the Commission by section 176 to any of its members, or-

(a) in the case of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, to a Judge;

(b) in the case of-

(i) the Public Service Commission, to any public officer or in respect of the Regional Health Authorities to the Boards of the Regional Health Authorities established under section 4 of the Regional Health Authorities Act, 1995; and

(ii) the Teaching Service Commission, to any public officer.

Act No. 5 of 1995

(2) In this section and in section 176, as regards any matter concerning the holder of any office referred to in section 162(5), a reference to "public officer" includes a reference to a Judge as well as a retired public officer.

Consultation with other Service Commissions

175. Before a Service Commission appoints to an office a person holding or acting in any office, power to make appointments to which is vested by this Constitution in another Service Commission, it shall consult that other Commission.

Powers and procedure of Service Commissions

176.(1) A Service Commission may, with the consent of the President, by regulation or otherwise regulate its own procedure, including the procedure for consultation with persons with whom it is required by this Constitution to consult, and confer powers and impose duties on any public officer or in the case of the holder of an office referred to in section 146(2), a Judge or on any authority of the Government, for the purpose of the discharge of its functions.

(2) At a meeting of a Service Commission three members shall constitute a quorum.

(3) No penalty may be imposed on a public officer except as a result of disciplinary proceedings.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), where a public officer is convicted of a criminal offence by a court and the time allotted for an appeal has elapsed or, if the officer has appealed, the appeal process has been completed or an order has been made under section 71 of the Summary Courts Act, a Service Commission may consider the relevant proceedings on such offence and if it is of the opinion that the officer ought to be dismissed or subjected to some lesser punishment in respect of the conduct which led to his conviction or to the making of the order, the Commission may thereupon dismiss or otherwise punish the officer without the institution of any disciplinary proceedings.

Chap. 4:20

(5) In furtherance of subsection (4) -

(a) a certificate of conviction issued by the court shall be sufficient evidence of a public officer's conviction for an offence;

(b) a certified copy of an order made under section 71 of the Summary Courts Act shall be sufficient evidence of the commission by the public officer of the offence for which he was charged.

(6) A public officer referred to in subsection (4) is entitled to show reason why he should not be dismissed from office.

(7) A reference in subsection (4) to a Service Commission also includes a reference to the Commissioner of Police, as the case may be.

PART II

Public Service Appeal Board

Constitution of Appeal Board

177.(1) There shall be a Public Service Appeal Board (in this Part referred to as "the Appeal Board") to which appeals shall lie from a decision of a Service Commission.

(2) The Appeal Board shall consist of a Chairman who shall be a Judge or a retired Judge, appointed by the President after consultation with the Chief Justice and four other members appointed by the President after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition and President of the Law Association.

(3) One member of the Appeal Board shall be a retired public officer.

Tenure of office

178.(1) Sections 172, 173 and 184 shall apply to members of the Appeal Board as they apply to members of a Service Commission.

(2) Before entering upon the duties of his office, a member of the Appeal Board shall take and subscribe the oath of office set out in the First Schedule before the President or a person appointed by the President for the purpose.

First Schedule

Appeals

179.(1) Where a public officer is aggrieved by a decision of a Service Commission, he is entitled to file an appeal against that decision to the Public Service Appeal Board.

(2) The Appeal Board may, where it considers it necessary that further evidence may be adduced-

- (a) order such evidence to be adduced either before the Appeal Board or by affidavit; or
- (b) refer the matter back to the relevant Service Commission to take such evidence and-
 - (i) to adjudicate upon the matter afresh; or
 - (ii) to report for the information of the Appeal Board specific findings of fact.

(3) Where the matter is referred to a Service Commission under subsection (2)(b), the matter, so far as may be practicable or necessary, shall be dealt with as if it were being heard at first instance.

(4) Upon the conclusion of the hearing of an appeal under this section, the Appeal Board may-

- (a) affirm, modify or amend the decision appealed against;
- (b) set aside the decision; or
- (c) substitute any other decision which the Service Commission could have made.

Procedure

180.(1) The Appeal Board may by regulations make provision for-

- (a) procedure of its own; and
- (b) the procedure in appeals under this section.

(2) With the consent of the President, the Appeal Board may by regulation or otherwise confer powers and impose duties on any public officer or any authority of the Government for the purpose of the exercise of the functions of the Appeal Board.

PART III

Pension

Protection of pension rights

181.(1) Subject to section 182, the law applicable to any benefits to which this section applies shall, in relation to a person who has been granted or who is eligible for the grant of such benefits, be that in force on the relevant date or any later law that is not less favourable to that person.

(2) In this section, "the relevant date" means-

(a) in relation to any benefits granted or to be granted on or after the commencement of this Constitution to or in respect of a person who was a public officer before that date, the commencement of this Constitution;

(b) in relation to any benefits granted or to be granted to or in respect of a person who becomes a public officer on or after the commencement of this Constitution, the date on which he becomes a public officer.

(3) Where a person is entitled to exercise an option as to which of two or more laws shall apply in his case, the law specified by him in exercising the option is, for the purpose of this section deemed to be more favourable to him than the other law.

(4) A benefit to which this section applies, not being a benefit that is a charge on some other public fund of Trinidad and Tobago, shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

(5) A reference in this section to the law applicable to any benefits includes, without prejudice to the generality of the expression, a reference to a law relating to the time at which and the manner in which a person may retire in order to become eligible for those benefits.

(6) For the purpose of this section, service as President or as a Judge is deemed to be public service.

(7) This section applies to any benefits payable under any law providing for the grant of pensions, gratuities or compensation to persons who are or have been public officers in respect of their service in the public service, or to the widows, children, dependants or personal representatives of such persons in respect of such service.

Powers of Service Commission in relation to grant
of pensions, etc.

182.(1) Where under any law an authority has power to withhold, reduce in amount or suspend any benefits to which this section applies, that power shall not be exercised without the approval specified in subsection (2), (3) or (4).

(2) Subject to subsection (4), where a person who has been granted benefits, or who is eligible for benefits, in respects of public service was, at the time he ceased to be a public officer, subject to the jurisdiction of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, the Police Service Commission or the Teaching Service Commission, the power referred to in subsection (1) shall not be exercised with respect to those benefits without the approval of that Commission.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where a person who has been granted benefits, or who is eligible for benefits, in respect of public service, was not, at the time he ceased to be a public officer, subject to the jurisdiction of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, the Police Service Commission, or the

Teaching Service Commission, the power referred to in subsection (1) shall not be exercised without the approval of the Public Service Commission.

(4) Where a person is eligible for benefits in respect of public service was, at the time he ceased to be a public officer, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Police, the power referred to in subsection (1) with respect to those benefits shall not be exercised without the approval of the Commissioner of Police.

(5) No benefits to which this section applies that have been granted to or in respect of any person who is or has been the holder of an office referred to in section 184(11) to (15) or for which any such person or his widow, children, dependants or his personal representatives may be eligible, shall be withheld, reduced in amount or suspended on the ground that that person has been guilty of misbehaviour, unless that person has been removed from his office under this Constitution by reason of such misbehaviour.

(6) For the purpose of this section, service as a Judge is deemed to be public service.

(7) This section applies to any benefits payable under any law providing for the grant of pensions, gratuities or compensation to persons who are or have been public officers in respect of their service in the public service or to the widows, children or personal representatives of such persons in respect of such service.

PART IV

Special Offices

Appointment of principal representatives
of Trinidad and

183.(1) The President shall have power to appoint persons to the offices to which this section applies and to remove persons from any such office.

Tobago

(2) Before exercising his power under this section in relation to a person who holds or is acting in a public office other than an office to which this section applies, the President shall consult the appropriate Service Commission.

(3) This section applies to the office of-

- (a) Ambassador or High Commissioner; and
- (b) any principal representative of Trinidad and Tobago in any other country.

Tenure of special offices

184.(1) The holder of an office to which this subsection and subsections (2) to (10) apply (in this section referred to as "the officer") shall vacate his office on attaining the age of sixty-five years or such other age as may be prescribed.

(2) Nothing done by the officer shall be invalid by reason only that he has attained the age at which he is required under this section to vacate his office.

(3) The officer shall vacate his office if, with his consent, he becomes a Senator or is nominated for election to the House of Representatives or the House of Assembly.

(4) The salaries and allowances payable to the holders of the office to which subsections (1) to (10) apply or an office referred to in subsections (12) to (15) shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

(5) The salary and allowances payable to the holder of an office to which subsections (1) to (10) apply or an office referred to in subsections (12) to (15) and his other terms of service shall not be altered to his disadvantage after his appointment and for the purpose of this subsection, in so far as the terms of service of a person depend upon the option of that person, the terms for which he opts shall be taken to be more advantageous to him than any other terms for which he might have opted.

(6) The officer, except a member of a Service Commission, may be removed from office only for inability to discharge the functions of his office whether arising from infirmity of mind or body or any other cause, or for misbehaviour and shall not be so removed except in accordance with subsection (9).

(7) A decision that the question of removing the officer from office ought to be investigated may be made at any time-

- (a) in the case of the Ombudsman by resolution of the House of Representatives; and
- (b) in any other case by the President either on his own initiative or upon the representation of the relevant Service Commission.

(8) Where a decision is made under subsection (7) that the question of removing the officer from office ought to be investigated, then-

- (a) the President shall appoint a Tribunal which shall consist of a Chairman and not less than two other members all of whom shall be selected by the President acting in accordance with the advice of the Judicial and Legal Service Commission from among persons who hold or have held office as a Judge of a court having unlimited jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters in some part of the Commonwealth or a court having jurisdiction in appeals from any such court; and

- (b) the Tribunal shall inquire into the matter and report on the facts to the President and advise the President whether the officer ought to be removed from office on any of the grounds specified in subsection (6), or in relation to a member of a Service Commission, the grounds specified in section 173.

(9) Where the question of removing the officer from office is referred to a Tribunal appointed under subsection (8) and the Tribunal advises the President that the officer ought to be removed from office, the President shall, by writing signed by him, remove the officer from office.

(10) Where the question of removing the officer from office has been referred to a Tribunal under subsection (8), the President, after consultation with the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, may suspend the officer from performing the functions of his office and any such suspension may at any time be revoked by the President and shall in any case cease to have effect if the Tribunal advises the President that the officer ought not to be removed from office.

(11) Subsections (1) to (10) apply to the office of Auditor General and to such other offices as may be prescribed.

(12) Subsections (1) to (5) apply to the office of Judge.

(13) Subsections (1) to (5) apply to the office of Director of Public Prosecutions, Chief Parliamentary Counsel and Solicitor General.

(14) Subsections (4) to (10) apply to the office of Ombudsman, a member of the Election and Boundaries Commission, a member of the Integrity Commission, a member of a Service Commission, a member of the Salaries Review Commission and to such other offices as may be prescribed.

(15) Subsections (4) and (5) apply to the office of President.

CHAPTER 10

THE INTEGRITY COMMISSION

The Integrity Commission

185.(1) There shall be an Integrity Commission (in this section and in section 186 referred to as "the Commission") for Trinidad and Tobago consisting of such number of members, qualified and appointed in such manner and holding office upon such tenure as may be prescribed.

First Schedule

(2) Before entering upon the duties of his office, a member of the Commission shall take and subscribe the oath of office set out in the First Schedule before the President or a person appointed by the President for the purpose.

(3) The Commission shall be charged with the duty of-

- (a) receiving from time to time, declarations in writing of the assets, liabilities and income of the members and the holders of such offices as may be prescribed;
- (b) the supervision and monitoring of standards of ethical conduct prescribed by Parliament to be observed by the holders of offices referred to in paragraph (a), as well as members of the Diplomatic Service, Advisers to the Government and any person appointed by a Service Commission or the Statutory Authorities' Service Commission;

- (c) the monitoring and investigating of conduct, practices and procedures which are dishonest or corrupt;
- (d) the supervision of all matters connected therewith as may be prescribed.

Power to make laws relating to the Commission

186. Subject to this Constitution, Parliament may make provision for-

- (a) the procedure in accordance with which the Commission is to perform its functions;
- (b) conferring such powers on the Commission and imposing such duties on persons concerned as are necessary to enable the Commission to carry out effectively the purpose of section 185;
- (c) the proper custody of declarations and other documents delivered to the Commission;
- (d) the maintenance of secrecy in respect of all information received by the Commission in the course of its duties with respect to the assets, liabilities and income of any person;
- (e) the preparation by the Commission of a Register of Interests for public inspection; and
- (f) generally to give effect to section 185.

CHAPTER 11

THE SALARIES REVIEW COMMISSION

Constitution of Commission

187.(1) There shall be a Salaries Review Commission which shall consist of a Chairman and four other members all of whom shall be appointed by the President after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition.

(2) The members of the Salaries Review Commission shall hold office in accordance with sections 172 and 173.

Functions of Commission

188.(1) The Salaries Review Commission shall, from time to time with the approval of the President, review the salaries and other conditions of service of the President, the holders of offices referred to in section 184(11) to (14), members of Parliament, including Ministers of Government and the holders of such other offices as may be prescribed.

(2) The report of the Salaries Review Commission concerning any review of salaries or of the conditions of service, or both, shall be submitted to the President and shall be laid as soon as possible thereafter on the table of each House.

CHAPTER 12

THE TOBAGO HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

Tobago House of Assembly

189.(1) There shall be an assembly to be called the Tobago House of Assembly.

(2) The House of Assembly shall consist of a Presiding Officer and such other members qualified and appointed in such manner and holding office upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

Powers and functions of the House of Assembly

190. Subject to this Constitution, the House of Assembly shall have such powers and functions in relation to Tobago as may be prescribed.

Executive Council

191.(1) There shall be an Executive Council of the House of Assembly consisting of a Chief Secretary and such number of Secretaries as may be prescribed, and appointed in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) The functions of the Chief Secretary and other Secretaries shall be prescribed

Fund

192. There is established a fund to be called "the Tobago House of Assembly Fund" which shall consist of -

- (a) such monies as may be appropriated by Parliament for the use of the House of Assembly; and
- (b) such other monies as the House of Assembly may lawfully collect.

CHAPTER 13

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Local Government bodies Fourth Schedule

193.(1) There shall be such Local Government bodies as set out in the Fourth Schedule and such other Local Government bodies as may be prescribed.

(2) Each Local Government body shall consist of a Presiding Officer and such other members qualified and appointed in such manner and holding office upon such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

Powers and functions of Local Government

194.(1) Subject to this Constitution, each Local Government body shall have such powers and functions in bodies relation to their local area as may be prescribed.

(2) Local Government bodies shall also perform such central government functions as may be assigned to them by the Government.

(3) In the exercise of their powers and functions, each Local Government body shall be a partner with the central government to further, within their local area, the interest of the country.

Funding

195. The funds of each Local Government body shall consist of -

- (a) such monies as may be appropriated by Parliament for the use of each Local Government body; and
- (b) such other monies as each Local Government body may lawfully collect.

CHAPTER 14

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Resignation

196.(1) Subject to this Constitution, a person who is appointed, elected to or otherwise selected for an office established by this Constitution, including the office of President or Minister, may resign from that office by writing signed by him and addressed to the person or authority by whom he was appointed, elected or selected,

(2) The resignation of a person from any such office shall take effect when the writing signifying the resignation is received by the person or authority to whom it is addressed or by a person authorised by that person or authority to receive it.

Re-appointment,
etc.

197.(1) Where a person has vacated an office established by this Constitution, including the office of President or Minister, he may, if qualified, again be appointed, elected or otherwise selected to hold that office in accordance with this Constitution.

(2) Where by this Constitution a power is conferred upon a person or an authority to make an appointment to a public office, a person may be appointed to that office notwithstanding that some other person may be holding that office, when that other person is on leave of absence pending relinquishment of the office.

(3) Where two or more persons are holding the same public office by reason of an appointment made in pursuance of subsection (2), then for the purpose of any function conferred upon the holder of that office the person last appointed is deemed to be the sole holder of the office.

FIRST SCHEDULE

FORMS OF OATH (OR AFFIRMATION) OF ALLEGIANCE AND OF OFFICE

Section 47 Form of oath (affirmation) for the President or Vice-President:

I, A. B., do swear by (solemnly affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to Trinidad and Tobago and to the best of my ability preserve and defend the Constitution and the law, that I will conscientiously and impartially discharge the functions of President and will devote myself to the service and well-being of the people of Trinidad and Tobago.

Section 108 Form of oath (affirmation) for a Minister :

I, A. B., do swear by (solemnly affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to Trinidad and Tobago and will uphold the Constitution and the law, that I will conscientiously, impartially and to the best of my ability discharge my duties as and do right to all manner of people without fear or favour, affection or ill-will.

Section 82 Form of oath (affirmation) for a member of the House of Representatives or the Senate:

I, A. B., having been elected/appointed a member of Parliament do swear by (solemnly affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to Trinidad and Tobago, will uphold the Constitution and the law, and will conscientiously and impartially discharge the responsibilities to the people of Trinidad and Tobago upon which I am about to enter.

Sections 3(1),
118(5), 138, 154,
172(4), 178(2)

Form of oath (affirmation) for the Ombudsman, a Judge, the Auditor General, or a member of a Service Commission, the Public Service Appeal Board or the Integrity Commission:

I. A. B., having been appointed of Trinidad and Tobago do swear by (solemnly affirm) that I will bear true faith and allegiance to Trinidad and Tobago and will uphold the Constitution and the law, that I will conscientiously, impartially and to the best of my knowledge, judgment and ability discharge the functions of my office and do right to all manner of people after the laws and usages of Trinidad and Tobago without fear or favour, affection or ill-will.

Section 101

SECOND SCHEDULE

BOUNDARIES OF CONSTITUENCIES

1. These rules are the Delimitation of Constituencies Rules in accordance with which the constituencies of Trinidad and Tobago are to be delimited under section 101(1).

2. Subject to paragraph 3, the electorate shall, so far as is practicable, be equal in all constituencies.

3. The number of constituencies in Tobago shall not be less than two.

4. In Trinidad and in Tobago, respectively, the electorate in any constituency shall not be more than one hundred and ten per cent nor be less than ninety per cent of the total electorate of the island divided by the number of constituencies in that island.

5. Special attention shall be paid to the needs of sparsely populated areas which on account of size, isolation or inadequacy of communications cannot adequately be represented by a single member of Parliament.

6. Natural boundaries such as major highways and rivers shall be used wherever possible.

7. In this Schedule, "Trinidad" means the Island of Trinidad and its offshore islands, and "Tobago" means the Island of Tobago and its offshore islands.

Section 121(4)(b)

THIRD SCHEDULE

MATTERS NOT SUBJECT TO INVESTIGATION BY THE OMBUDSMAN

1 Action taken in matters certified by the Attorney General to affect relations or dealings between the Government and any other government or any International Organisation.

2 Action taken in any country or territory outside Trinidad and Tobago by or on behalf of any officer representing or acting under the authority of the Government.

3. Action taken under any law relating to extradition or fugitive offenders.

4. Action taken for the purpose of investigating crime or of protecting the security of the State.

5. The commencement or conduct of civil or criminal proceedings before any court or before any international court or tribunal.

6. Any exercise of the power of pardon.

7. Action taken in matters relating to contractual or other commercial transactions, being transactions of a department of Government or an authority to which section 120 applies not being transactions for or relating to-

- (a) the acquisition of land compulsorily or in circumstances in which it could be acquired compulsorily;
- (b) the disposal as surplus of land acquired compulsorily or in circumstances in which it could be acquired compulsorily.

8. Action taken in respect of appointments, removals, pay, discipline, superannuation or other personnel matters in relation to service in any office or employment in the public service or under any authority as may be prescribed.

9. Any matter relating to a person who is or was a member of the armed forces of Trinidad and Tobago in so far as the matter relates to-

- (a) the terms and conditions of service as such member; or
- (b) any order, command, penalty or punishment given to or affecting him in his capacity as such member.

10. Any action which by virtue of this Constitution may not be enquired into by any court.

Sections 62(8)
and (9), 193(1)

FOURTH SCHEDULE

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BODIES

1. The Port of Spain City Corporation;
2. The San Fernando City Corporation;

3. The Arima Borough Corporation;
4. The Chaguanas Borough Corporation;
5. The Point Fortin Borough Corporation;
6. The Couva/Tabaquite/Talparo Regional Corporation;
7. The Diego Martin Regional Corporation;
8. The Mayaro/Rio Claro Regional Corporation;
9. The Penal/Debe Regional Corporation;
10. The Princess Town Regional Corporation;
11. The Sangre Grande Regional Corporation;
12. The Siparia Regional Corporation.
13. The San Juan/Laventille Regional Corporation;
14. The Tunupuna/Piarco Regional Corporation.