BILL

AN ACT to amend the Land Tribunal Act, 2000

THE LAND TRIBUNAL (AMENDMENT) (NO. 2) BILL, 2017

Explanatory Notes

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The Bill seeks to amend the Land Tribunal Act, 2000 to facilitate the implementation of the package of legislation referred to as “the land package”.

The Bill contains eight clauses.

Clause 1 would set out the short title of the Bill.

Clause 2 of the Bill would provide for the interpretation of the word “Act” as it is used in the Bill.

Clause 3 of the Bill would delete the definition of “Adjudication Officer” and replace with a cross reference to the definition in the Land Adjudication Act, 2000 and would also amend the definition of “Minister” to now mean the Minister to whom responsibility for land adjudication is assigned.

Clause 4 of the Bill would amend section 3 of the Act, by repealing the existing section 3 and substituting a new section which would establish the Land Tribunal, change the composition of the Tribunal and would contain proposed new sections 3A, 3B and 3C. At present the Tribunal comprises the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and the lay assessors. The Bill would provide that the Tribunal would now be comprised of a Chairman, Deputy Chairman and four other members.

The Clause goes on to provide that the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and the other members would be Attorneys-at-law of at least ten years experience in the practise of land law and sections 104 to 107 of the Constitution would apply to them. The Chairman, Deputy Chairman and the other members would enjoy the same.

The proposed new section 3A would provide that the Tribunal would be advised by lay assessors in matters relating to their specific disciplines. The disciplines would include the administration of local government, town and country planning, environmental planning, architectural engineering, land valuation, etc. The clause would also make provision for the appointment of temporary lay assessors if and when a vacancy arises. The clause also provides that the lay assessors would hold office for no less than three years and may be reappointed.

The proposed new section 3B would set out the terms and conditions of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman, other members of the Tribunal and lay assessors. The proposed section 3C would clearly set out that the decision makers of the Tribunal are the members who are appointed under section 3.

Clause 5 would amend section 4 of the Act to specifically provide for the disqualification of lay assessors.

Clause 6 would amend section 5 of the Act to empower the Tribunal to declare provisional title in respect of State land as absolute title where an application is made under section 16(3) of the Land Adjudication Act and would allow the Chairman to constitute the Tribunal with three persons.

Clause 7 would amend section 7(3) of the Act to no longer allow matters to be remitted to the Adjudication Officer by the Tribunal.

Clause 8 would make a consequential amendment based on the amendment of the term “adjudication officer” in section 2 of the Act.
