THE URBAN AND REGIONAL PLANNING PROFESSION
BILL, 2019

Explanatory Note

(These notes form no part of the Bill but are intended only to indicate its general purport)

The purpose of this Bill is to establish the Trinidad and Tobago Council for Urban and Regional Planners which shall deal with the regulation of the urban and regional planning profession and other matters incidental thereto.

This Bill would require, pursuant to section 13 of the Constitution, to be passed by a special majority of three-fifths of all the members of each House of Parliament.

Part I entitled "Preliminary" would comprise clauses 1 to 3.

Clause 1 would provide for the short title of the Act.

Clause 2 of the Bill would allow the Bill to have effect even though inconsistent with sections 4 and 5 of the Constitution.

Clause 3 would provide for the interpretation provision of the Act.

Part II entitled "The Trinidad and Tobago Council for Urban and Regional Planners" would comprise clauses 4 to 14.

Clause 4 would establish the Trinidad and Tobago Council for Urban and Regional Planners as a body corporate.

Clause 5 would provide for the Council to be comprised of seven members and alternates who would be nominated by the Trinidad and Tobago Society of Planners and the Minister. Also, it would provide for the Minister to appoint all the members and alternates of the Council. Further, it would cause members to be appointed or elected to offices of the Council.

Clause 6 would identify the functions of the Council.

Clause 7 would provide for the tenure of, and reappointment to, an office.

Clause 8 would identify the grounds for a vacancy of an office. Also, the clause would provide for the continuation in office of a member after his term has expired. Further, it would cater for the publication of appointments and termination. The clause would also allow for the Council to be deemed as properly constituted notwithstanding any defect in the appointment of its members.

Clause 9 would provide for the remuneration of members.

Clause 10 would provide for the seal of the Council, its custody and use.

Clause 11 would deal with meetings of the Council.

Clause 12 would provide for a quorum of members for meetings of the Council.

Clause 13 would allow for decisions of the Council to be made with the majority of members present and voting and the casting vote of the Chairman.

Clause 14 would prevent members from being personally liable for things done or omitted in good faith to be done under the Act.

Part III entitled "Licensing of Urban and Regional Planners" would comprise clauses 15 to 28.

Clause 15 would identify the requirements for practising urban and regional planning in Trinidad and Tobago.

Clause 16 would empower the Council to issue a Professional Licence after the requirements of clause 15 have been fulfilled. Additionally, it would deem certain persons as Urban and Regional Planners upon the commencement of the Act and subject to certain conditions.

Clause 17 would allow the Council to renew a Professional Licence.

Clause 18 would empower the Council to issue and renew a Provisional Licence after the requirements of clause 15 have been fulfilled except in respect of experience but subject to certain conditions.

Clause 19 would empower the Council to issue and reissue a Temporary Licence to a person who is not from a qualifying Caribbean Community State, after the requirements of clause 15 have been fulfilled, but subject to restrictions.

Clause 20 would provide for the forms for licences issued under the Act. Also, it would allow the Council to issue a certified copy of a licence.

Clause 21 would provide for the displaying of a licence and the certified copy by its holder.

Clause 22 would identify the various entitlements of a practising Urban and Regional Planner under the Act.

Clause 23 would allow an Urban and Regional Planner to recover fees and costs in any Court for professional services.

Clause 24 would provide for the validity of documents to be signed only by an Urban and Regional Planner.

Clause 25 would identify the grounds for revoking a licence by the Council. Also, it would give the Council the power to suspend a licence until it makes a decision to revoke the licence. Further, the clause would create an offence where a holder of a revoked licence refuses or neglects to give it up to the Council.

Clause 26 would provide for the re-registration of an Urban and Regional Planner whose name was removed from the Register in accordance with the Act.

Clause 27 would make provision for the appeal of a decision of the Council to the Environmental Commission.

Clause 28 would allow for the Environmental Commission to prescribe the manner for hearing an appeal under the Act.

Part IV entitled “Register for Urban and Regional Planners” would comprise clauses 29 to 33.

Clause 29 would provide for the Council to keep a register of every person who holds a licence under the Act.

Clause 30 would make provision for an Urban and Regional Planner to have any higher qualification, which was obtained after his registration, be entered on the Register.

Clause 31 would provide for the striking out of incorrect or fraudulent entries that are made in the Register.

Clause 32 would provide that a licence issued under the Act is to be prima facie evidence that the person holding the licence is duly registered to practise as an Urban and Regional Planner.

Clause 33 would make provision for the annual publication of the names of persons holding a licence under the Act.

Part V entitled “Committees of the Council” would comprise clauses 34 to 49.

Clause 34 would require the Council to appoint a Recognition Committee and a Disciplinary Committee.

Clause 35 would identify the functions of the Recognition Committee.

Clause 36 would provide for the composition of members for the Recognition Committee.

Clause 37 would provide for the resignation of a member from the Recognition Committee.

Clause 38 would provide for the revocation of the appointment of any member from the Recognition Committee.

Clause 39 would deal with the filling of a vacancy in the Recognition Committee.

Clause 40 would identify the procedure for meetings of the Recognition Committee.

Clause 41 would allow the Council to send the application for a licence and accompanying documents to the Recognition Committee for consideration.

Clause 42 would allow the Recognition Committee to make rules subject to the approval of the Council.

Clause 43 would identify the functions of the Disciplinary Committee.

Clause 44 would set out the composition of the Disciplinary Committee.

Clause 45 would provide for the resignation of a member from the Disciplinary Committee.

Clause 46 would provide for the revocation of appointment of any member from the Disciplinary Committee.

Clause 47 would deal with the filling of a vacancy in the Disciplinary Committee.

Clause 48 would provide for the publication of names of all members of the Disciplinary Committee.

Clause 49 would identify the procedure for meetings of the Disciplinary Committee.

Part VI entitled "Disciplinary Proceedings" would comprise clauses 50 to 53.

Clause 50 would establish the procedure to be followed with respect to complaints of professional misconduct or matters that concern the Urban and Regional Planner being convicted of an offence.

Clause 51 would provide for the making of rules of procedure by the Council. Also, it would allow for the Disciplinary Committee to have the powers to summon witnesses.

Clause 52 would require the Disciplinary Committee to submit a report of its findings and recommendations to the Council.

Clause 53 would lay down the powers of the Council upon the consideration of a report that is submitted to it by the Disciplinary Committee.

Part VII entitled “Offences and Penalties” would comprise clauses 54 to 58.

Clause 54 would make it an offence to practise urban and regional planning without a valid licence.

Clause 55 would make it an offence to fraudulently obtain a licence under this Act.

Clause 56 would make it an offence to fraudulently make entries or alter entries in the Register.

Clause 57 would make it an offence to practise urban and regional planning while suspended.

Clause 58 would prescribe an additional fine for professional misconduct by an Urban and Regional Planner.

Part VIII entitled “Miscellaneous” would comprise clauses 60 to 62.

Clause 59 would allow the Council to appoint staff.

Clause 60 would give the Minister the power to make Regulations.

Clause 61 would allow the Minister, after consultation with the Council, to amend the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth Schedules by Order.

23. (1) An Urban and Regional Planner is entitled to recover as a civil debt in any Court, with full costs of suit, his reasonable charges for professional services.

(2) No person claiming to be, or describing himself as or acting in the capacity of an Urban and Regional Planner shall be allowed to recover in any Court any fees or charges for professional services as an Urban and Regional Planner unless he is an Urban and Regional Planner.

Documents to be signed by an Urban and Regional Planner

24. All documents that are required to be signed by an Urban and Regional Planner shall be valid only where the person signing it is the holder of a valid licence under this Act.

Revocation of a licence

25. (1) The Council may revoke the licence of an Urban and Regional Planner where the Urban and Regional Planner—

- (a) commits professional misconduct; or
- (b) is convicted of an offence which—

- (i) is punishable on indictment in Trinidad and Tobago or carries a penalty of imprisonment for a period of at least five years; or

- (ii) was committed outside the jurisdiction of Trinidad and Tobago that if it was committed in Trinidad and Tobago would have been punishable on indictment or would carry a penalty of imprisonment for a period of at least five years.

(2) The Council may suspend the licence of an Urban and Regional Planner until the Council makes a decision with respect to the revocation of a licence as referred to in subsection (1).

(3) A licence shall cease to be valid when the Council revokes it.

(4) When the Council revokes a licence, it shall indicate a specific date for the revocation to take effect and for the licence to be returned by its holder for cancellation by the Council.

(5) Any holder of a licence who refuses or neglects to give up his licence as so indicated in subsection (4) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars and to imprisonment for a term of six months.

(6) During the period of its suspension, the licence of an Urban and Regional Planner shall not be valid.

26. (1) A former holder of a licence which was <sup>Re-registration after removal from Register</sup> revoked under section 25 may reapply for a licence no earlier than one year after the date of the removal of his name from the Register.

(2) The Council, in its discretion, may approve or refuse an application under subsection (1).

27. (1) A person may appeal to the Environmental <sup>Appeals</sup> Commission on any decision of the Council including a decision to—

- (a) refuse the renewal of his licence under sections 17, 18(2) and 19(2);
- (b) revoke his licence under sections 25 and 53;
- (c) suspend his licence under sections 25(2) and 53; or
- (d) refuse his reapplication under section 26.

(2) The Environmental Commission, on hearing an appeal under subsection (1), may make such order in the case as seems just.

28. An appeal under section 27 shall be made within <sup>Rules of Court</sup> such time and in such form and shall be heard in such manner as may be prescribed by the Environmental Commission.

PART IV

REGISTER FOR URBAN AND REGIONAL PLANNERS

Register

SIXTH SCHEDULE

(Sections 3 and 50)

CODE OF ETHICS

PART I

GENERAL OBLIGATIONS

1. An Urban and Regional Planner, who is employed in the public service or private practice and performs work involved in urban and regional planning, whether academic, research or otherwise, shall have a duty to the public, his employer and clients, as well as to other members of the profession, at all times to—

- (a) serve the public interest in a manner which upholds the integrity of the profession within the laws of Trinidad and Tobago;
- (b) uphold the reputation of the urban and regional planning profession;
- (c) conduct himself in accordance with the highest standards of professional practice and integrity; and
- (d) assist with advancing the competency of persons who are qualified or training to become urban and regional planners.

2. An Urban and Regional Planner shall—

- (a) undertake only such work as he is competent to perform by virtue of his training and experience; and
- (b) obtain Professional Indemnity Insurance when so required by law.

3. An Urban and Regional Planner shall consider in his practice of urban and regional planning the following concepts:

- (a) land is a finite resource, particularly in small island States, and should be utilised in a judicious manner;
- (b) the need to protect the integrity of the natural environment;
- (c) problem solving involves an analysis of choices which requires the balancing of competing interests;
- (d) future consequences of present actions;

- (e) the need for meaningful and informed public participation in the urban and regional planning process and due consideration of available choices;
  - (f) the social, economic, physical and environment issues underlying land use and spatial development;
  - (g) the rights and privileges of individuals under the Constitution and other written laws;
  - (h) the pursuit of excellence in design, whether in the natural or built environment;
  - (i) the need for public advocacy; and
  - (j) the desirability of monitoring and evaluating the implementation of a plan.
4. (1) An Urban and Regional Planner, in his practice, shall—
- (a) have regard to the totality of land use and adjacent seabed;
  - (b) ensure the rational and sustainable utilization of land and related natural resources; and
  - (c) consider the integrated development of settlements and supporting networks which promote human well-being, environmental harmony and aesthetics.
- (2) An Urban and Regional Planner, who holds a Professional Licence or Temporary Licence, shall affix his stamp or seal and signature to those plans, specifications and reports actually prepared and approved by him or done under his direct supervision.

5. An Urban and Regional Planner shall—
- (a) endeavour to extend public understanding of urban and regional planning and its place in society;
  - (b) endeavour at all times to enhance the public regard for, and its understanding of, his profession, by extending the public knowledge thereof and discouraging untrue and exaggerated statements with respect to professional services in urban and regional planning;
  - (c) have proper regard for the safety, health and welfare of the public in the performance of his professional duties; and
  - (d) conduct himself in such a manner as not to prejudice his professional reputation.

PART II

RESPONSIBILITY TO THE PUBLIC

6. An Urban and Regional Planner shall not—
- (a) misrepresent his qualifications and experience;
  - (b) endeavour by direct or indirect means to attract the clients of another Urban and Regional Planner and where a client is referred to him by another Urban and Regional Planner, the client remains for all other purposes the client of the referring Urban and Regional Planner and the Urban and Regional Planner to whom the client is referred shall act with due deference to the relationship between the client and the referring Urban and Regional Planner;
  - (c) make any public statement on urban and regional planning projects connected with public policy where the statement is made on behalf of or paid for by private interest, unless he clearly discloses the private interest; and
  - (d) allow the publication or use of any of his work in any manner that is likely to mislead, and when it comes to his knowledge that it is so published, he shall take immediate steps to correct the false impressions given.

PART III

RESPONSIBILITY TO THE EMPLOYER AND CLIENT

7. (1) An Urban and Regional Planner shall not—
- (a) solicit prospective clients or employment through the use of harassment or duress and false or misleading claims;
  - (b) sell or offer for sale professional services by stating or implying an ability to influence decisions by improper means;
  - (c) offer to pay or accept, either directly or indirectly, any commission, political contribution, gift or other consideration in order to secure or execute urban and regional planning work; or
  - (d) accept or continue to perform work which cannot be performed with the promptness required by the prospective client or employer and the circumstances of the assignment.

(2) Where an Urban and Regional Planner is unable to do any portion of work, he shall either recommend to his client, or engage the services of, another Urban and Regional Planner or related professional, who is suitably qualified to perform the type of work required.

8. An Urban and Regional Planner shall—

- (a) accept the decisions of a client or employer regarding the objectives and nature of the professional services to be performed, notwithstanding observations made to the client or employer during briefing except where the course of action to be pursued involves conduct which is illegal or contrary to this Code;
- (b) provide diligent, creative, independent and competent performance of work in pursuit of the interests of a client or employer and consistent with dedicated service to the public interest; and
- (c) exercise independent professional judgment on behalf of clients and employers.

9. When pursuing urban and regional planning work on behalf of a client, an Urban and Regional Planner shall avoid undertaking work for and on behalf of any other client, if by so doing, the interests of either client may be in any way prejudiced or his ability to act wholly in the interests of either client may be in any way impaired.

10. Where the interests of an Urban and Regional Planner is likely to be affected by the decision of his client or employer on any matter whatsoever, he shall in writing, disclose to his client or employer the nature of his interests immediately after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge.

11. (1) An Urban and Regional Planner shall have a duty to fully disclose any actual, apparent or reasonably foreseeable conflict of interests by the Urban Regional Planner to his client or employer.

(2) An Urban and Regional Planner, who fails to comply with subclause (1), shall not be entitled to any remuneration in relations to the performance of the work.

12. (1) An Urban and Regional Planner shall refrain from disclosing confidential information pertaining to the interests of his clients or employers without their consent, except when required—

- (a) by process of law;
- (b) to prevent a clear violation of law; or
- (c) to prevent a substantial injury to the public.

(2) An Urban and Regional Planner shall avoid the use of information obtained confidentially in the course of his assignment as a means of making personal gain, except with the knowledge and written consent of his client or employer, as the case may be.

PART IV

EMPLOYMENT IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR

13. When advising or acting for a public authority in the discharge of any statutory planning function, an Urban and Regional Planner shall employ his professional skills with the sole concern for the proper discharge of that function, in the best interest of the authority that may be involved.

14. When employed by, or acting as a consultant to a government department, planning authority or other public service agency, an Urban and Regional Planner shall not—

- (a) undertake any private urban and regional planning work; or
- (b) engage in any private dealings in land or building, which falls within the jurisdiction of the department, authority or agency except with the written permission of the department, authority or agency concerned.

15. An Urban and Regional Planner shall not use the power of his office to seek or obtain a special advantage that is not in the public interest or to gain a special advantage that is not a matter of public knowledge.

16. An Urban and Regional Planner shall refrain from divulging any confidential findings resulting from studies or actions by any commission, board or other body of which he is a member or for which he is acting without the consent of that body.

17. While serving as a witness before a court, commission or other tribunal, an Urban and Regional Planner shall refrain from expressing opinions on the practice of urban and regional planning which are not founded on adequate knowledge and honest conviction.

PART V

SELF-RESPONSIBILITY

18. An Urban and Regional Planner shall—

- (a) be faithful to public needs;
- (b) be fair and loyal to his associates, employers, clients, subordinates and employees;
- (c) strive for high standards of professional competence;

- (d) not deliberately commit an act which reflects adversely on the urban and regional planning profession;
- (e) respect the rights of others and, in particular, shall not improperly discriminate against any person in the practice of his profession;
- (f) strive to contribute time and effort to groups lacking in adequate resources and to volunteer in activities related to the profession of urban and regional planning;
- (g) seek to maintain his professional competence throughout his professional life;
- (h) contribute to the development of the profession by sharing his experience and research;
- (i) accurately represent the professional qualifications, education and affiliations of himself and other members of the profession; and
- (j) report to the Council any unprofessional or dishonest conduct of any Urban and Regional Planner.

PART VI

ADVERTISING

19. (1) An Urban and Regional Planner shall employ circumspect advertising to announce his practice and availability and shall ensure that any such advertising is not excessive, misleading to the public or prejudicial to his professional reputation or that of the profession.

(2) An Urban and Regional Planner shall not advertise his professional services by using any—

- (a) inaccurate statement of fact;
- (b) explicit comparison between the professional services he offers and the service offered by another Urban and Regional Planner; or
- (c) endorsement of a commercial product.

(3) For the purposes of this Part, “excessive advertising” includes a statement to the effect that an Urban and Regional Planner can offer superior services or solve all problems in his profession.
